LONDON, Feb. 2.—The British foreign office today denied that negotiations between Eugene Chen, nationalist leader in China, and the British charge, O'Malley, have broken down.

The foreign office issued the following statement:—

The report that discussions between Charge O'Malley and Eugene Chen have broken off is incorrect.

"Information at present available is that in the course of negotiations regarding the future status of the British concessions at Hankow and Kuukiang, Chen raised the question

Makes Report Of State Convention To Kiwanis Club

Report of the state convention of Kiwanis Clubs held on January 10 at the Schenley Hotel in Pittsburgh, was given by Thomas W. Dickey at the Kiwanis luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. today.

Mr. Dickey, ex-president of the Kiwanis Club, and L. C. Mantz were the representatives of the New Castle Kiwanians and they report a very interesting and instructive convention.

A feature of the luncheon today was that the president, Rev. C. J. Williamson, had each man introduce his neighbor, telling his occupation.

Says Groundhog Does Come Out In Winter

Mrs. C. W. Cox, who resides on the Wilmington road, near the Field Club, doesn't agree with the statement made yesterday by Asby Woodward, of Madison County, Virginia, that the groundhog never emerges from its hole until the early part of April.

"I recall quite well, that on February 2, 1888, I was living on a farm north of New Wilmington," said Mrs. Cox, "and on looking out of the window saw a groundhog come out of the ground, and run around a while then return to the hole. I didn't at the time realize that it was 'groundhog day' but later this fact impressed itself upon me, and I have always remembered it. There was heavy snow on the ground at the time."

Mrs. Cox didn't say whether or not she placed any credence in the groundhog myth, but she was positive that the declaration that the groundhog never came out during the winter is all wrong.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—With the death of Bernice Richardson, 20-year-old Milliken College co-ed, enrollment in the "suicide class of '27" today stood at nine.

That number of students—seven boys and two girls—have taken their own lives in American universities in the past 30 days, an appalling average of one every 78 hours, or approximately one every three days.

What is back of this alarming wave of self destruction?

"Watchful Waiting" Policy To Be Continued By U. S. Government

By MAURITZ A. HALLGREN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The United States has been forced into a position of virtual isolation in its efforts to deal with the Chinese problem, developments today indicated.

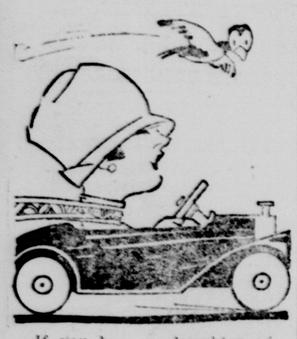

While this government is waiting for a set of Chinese delegates to come forward to open negotiations for new treaties, the various Chinese factional leaders are apparently paying but slight attention to Secretary of State Kellogg's proposal.

At the same time Japan and England, two other powers with important interests in China, are treating with China independently in the Far East republic, has moved neither to support the American stand nor to adopt a course of her own.

Cars Collide On Highland Avenue

Cars of Walter Palmer, 224 East Winter avenue, and James T. Ray, Wallace avenue, came together about seven o'clock last night, at Wallace and Highland avenues, and were considerably damaged. The accident occured at such a point on Highland avenue, that street car traffic was tied up for a time, until a wrecker could be secured and one of the cars removed.

Mr. Ray was driving north on Highland avenue and making a left hand turn to go west on Wallace avenue, when his machine crashed into the Palmer car, which was being driven south on Highland avenue, striking the left front wheel and running board of the Palmer machine and damaging it considerably. A front wheel of the Ray car was broken off and other damage done.

The interested parties have effected an adjustment of the damage done.

WAGE REDUCTION NOT FAVORED

Operators And Committeemen To Hold Conference In Florida

(International News Service)

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 2.—

A free hand to negotiate a two year wage scale agreement with the coal operators at Miami, Fla., February 14, for the central competitive field at no wage reduction was asked of the 30th constitutional convention of the United Mine Workers of America by the wage scale committee here today.

The committee recommended that "for the purpose of meeting any unforeseen emergency that might arise" a policy committee be created and be empowered to take such action for the protection of the interests of the union as might be necessary.

Recommendation was also made that all outlying districts be authorized to enter into wage scale negotiations with their respective operators as soon as the Miami agreement for the central competitive field was completed.

The new wage scale is to supplant the present Jacksonville agreement expiring on March 31.

The committee asked for an immediate referendum vote of the membership to authorize it to bargain terms with the operators in an endeavor to obtain an agreement for not less than $7.50 a day.

No mention was made of the 6-hour day and 5-day week.

BUTLER, Pa., Feb. 2.—The general office and station building of the Western Allegheny Railroad at Kaylor, 20 miles northeast of Butler, was destroyed by fire early today.

The fire is believed to have started from a defective flue. The loss is estimated at about $15,000. All records not in the safes were burned.

The railroad, operating from New Castle to Kaylor, was acquired by the Pennsylvania Railroad a few months ago.

Girl Suicides After Failing To Pass Exams

(International News Service)

DECATUR, Ill., Feb. 2.—Heartbroken students today paid final tribute to Bernice Richardson, pretty Milliken college co-ed who killed herself in the girls' dormitory yesterday after she had been notified of her failure to pass midterm examinations.

Special significance is attached to the girl's death in view of the current "suicide wave" sweeping over universities of the United States. Miss Richardson was the second co-ed to kill herself in as many days, and the ninth student victim of self-destruction since the first of the year.

Miss Richardson was the daughter of Dr. E. E. Richardson, a prominent physician of Mattoon, Ill., her mother was a social leader of the Central Illinois town. The girl went to Milliken College with excellent prospects and at once became a favorite with her classmates.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 2.—Alternately wielding an axe and a hatchet, Mrs. Anna Lista, 36, and her daughter Elizabeth 13, early today mashed in the head of Anthony Lista, husband and father, as he lay asleep in bed here according to the woman's alleged statement to Police Sergeant Kosier.

"I struck him first with an axe and then Elizabeth hit him with the hatchet" Mrs. Lista admitted according to Kosier.

"We were afraid for our lives; he had threatened to kill us," she declared.

Mother and Children Beaten.

The wife declared to officers that she and her three children had been beaten severely by Lista before he retired last night. She awakened during the night with a thirst and went for a drink of water. On the way she stumbled against an axe. This, she is alleged to have said, crystalized her intention of attacking her husband.

"I'm sorry the way I did it but my heart is lighter" her statement declared according to Kosier. "Now I feel that my children are safer."

Official Punxsutawney Report Says Groundhog Sees Shadow

By P. L. SMITH,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WEATHER WORKS, CANOE RIDGE, Punxsutawney, Pa., Feb. 2.—The groundhog has seen his shadow and six additional weeks of winter weather are just as certan as death and taxes.

Some lesser weather minions, pretenders to the throne of the original Punxsutawney groundhog, may have failed to see their shadows but the authenticated and recognized prognosticator of the species Marmot registered a full shadow at 8:35 o'clock this morning at the official weather works of Canoe Ridge.

A dozen weather scouts of the Punxsutawney Groundhog club were on hand to see the shadow casting and to duly record its myraid angles and intricacies for the interpretation of Chief Weather Scout Dr. F. A. Lorenzo.

Central Press Photo

To the uninitated the curves, quicks and bends of a shadow mean absolutely nothing; to the pretenders from Richmond, Va., and the would-be usurpers from Connellsville and McKees Rocks, Pa., the shadow of a groundhog is just that and nothing more.

Latitudinality, longitidinality, circumgyratory, curvilinear kinks mean nothing to them, but to "Doc" Lorenzo, long-schooled in groundhog lore, these terms are quite familiar and understandable.

This morning "Doc" Lorenzo gave the shadowgraph a quick once over, reduced the longitudinality of the graph to its proper latitudianality, subtracted the circumgyratory curvilonear and multiplied the results by the length of the shadow cast by the chuck's left high and there he had it—six weeks more of winter, rain, snow, ice and sleet or what have you.

Skeptical folks throughout the length and breadth of the land are invited to shed their "woolens" put away their goloshes, send their earmuffs to storage and start on a quest for spring flowers. The original Punxsutawney groundhog promised to attend to all resultant funerals "in a body."

Committee Reports Favorably On Bill For Second Judge

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—Lawrence County's request for an additional law judge is getting some fast action in the General Assembly and it wouldn't be a bad guess to say that by one week from today, the bill will be ready for the action of the House of Representatives which must concur before the bill is passed. At least such are the indications.

On Monday night, January 31, Senator George T. Weingartner presented the bill to the Senate and it was referred to the Judiciary General Committee. A meeting of the committee was called and early Tuesday morning, it had been reported out of the committee favorably, and was placed on the Senate calendar for first reading, which was had.

It will go into second reading on Monday night, February 7, and will be ready for third or final reading on Tuesday morning February 8. Every indication is that it will pass the Senate, and from there will be sent over to the House of Representatives.

A preliminary canvass of part of the House membership by Representative Bart Richards showed a lot of favorable sentiment by members from Philadelphia, Delaware, Allegheny, and Washington counties.

Action in the House may be a trifle slower than that of the Senate but every effort will be made to get the bill onto the calendar and voted upon at the earliest opportunity.

Will Not Prepare Meals For Jurors

Sheriff Notifies Commissioners That Other Provision Must Be Made

Sheriff H. M. Reynolds, through his attorney, has notified the county commissioners that he will not provide meals for any more jurors. Under the old fee bill system the sheriff could collect pay for meals furnished, but under the new law which put the sheriff on a salary basis, there is no method by which the sheriff can collect for the work of preparing the meals. Food is provided by the county but it requires considerable work to prepare the meals, and it generally has to be done on short notice. When juries are out on cases it will now be necessary to take them to a hotel for their meals.

YOUTH HAS FIGHT WITH MAD DOG

BEAVER, Pa., Feb. 2.—Harry Drear, 20 years old, of Vanport, fought a terrifying fight with a mad dog last night, near the Vanport postoffice and the dog was only overcome when Harry J. Drear, barber of Vanport, father of the youth, fired four shots into the body of the dog as it clung desperately with its teeth to the arm of its victim. A fifth shot ended the dog's life and then it was necessary to use a bar to break the hold of the dog's teeth.

I do not wish to be accused of local prejudice, I do not wish to get embroiled in any nasty muss, but as I read the daily news, of what the Senate's doing, it gets me all stirred up inside, as though there's something doing. These lads who come from out the west, all seem to have a mania, for knocking down the men who come from here in Pennsylvania. They seem to thing because we're big, that that is some omission, and that we should not get a seat on the I. C. Commission. Now Pennsylvania need not blush for men that she's appointing, and need not ask for any balm or whitewash for annointing. The I. C. C. should have a man from William Penn's sylvania, to give the lads a chance, who work in busy Pennsylvania. So let the lads from South and west, pipe down, let others sing, the weather's 45 today, and something near to spring.

Beauty Parlor Regulations Embodied In Bill By Woman

BY ROBERT F. GORMAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—In session for twenty minutes today, the house of representatives adjourned until next Monday night after advancing some bills on the calendar and receiving a score of new bills.

Less than a hundred members were in their seats when the session convened this morning but no question of a quorum was raised and the business proceeded.

New Borough Code.

Representative McClue, Allegheny county, presented a new borough code which covers all of the acts governing the borough form of government. The code will supplant the code passed in 1915, which has become unwieldly because of the many amendments attached to it. The new code carries with it a number of changes. Provision is made for the consolidation of boroughs and a referendum to take the place of court action. The burgess of the oldest town would serve in that capacity after the consolidation until the expiration of his regular term.

Borough councils, under the proposed code, would be empowered to establish or abolish the office of borough manager by ordinance. Borough planning commissions of five are provided for but the members would not receive compensation. In the coal districts boroughs would be enabled to create mine inspection bureaus for the inspection of surface supports. The new measure would become effective July 1, this year, if passed.

One Man Trolleys.

One man trolley cars in Pennsylvania would be abolished under the provisions of a bill presented today by Representative Hricko, Lackawanna, the measure fixes a fine of $100 for violations and put the enforcement of the bill up to the public service commission.

A beauty parlor bill, sponsored by Representative Helen Grimes, of Allegheny, made its appearance today. The bill, effective 90 days after passage, defines and regulates the occupation of cosmetologists, creates a state board of examiners of the licensing and registration of persons who engage in and teach cosmetology and provides for the enforcement of rules for the conduct of business and teaching in schools and shops.

It also fixes penalties.

SENTENCE COURT.

Lawrence county sentence court will be by Judge R. L. Hildebrand, Thursday, according to District Attorney J. Elder Bryan.

jealous rage, young Dickerson whipped out a revolver, fired at her three times and then sent a bullet into his own brain. He died instantly.

Act Premeditated

Police believe Dickerson's act was premeditated, at least the suicide part of the tragedy, as he left two notes, one of them addressed to his wealthy father, in which he denounced his parent for alleged mistreatment. It says in part:

"Dear Dad: I am killing myself tonight and I hope you are satisfied. I, too, was your son, but for any help I ever got from you I might as well have been a stranger. I'm through with life. Take your ranch and leave it to whom you please. A fraction of what you have thrown away would have saved one—well, enjoy this, as I know you will. The papers will tell you all about it."

His bride, formerly Lucille Peterson of Chicago, said her husband had accused her of caring for a former suitor. She said that they quarreled, then he sat down and began to write. Without warning, she said, he wheeled from the desk, pulled out a revolver and began shooting.

this government's choosing. That this position will be adhered to for the time being is borne out by comments of State Department officials today on the negotiations between the British and the Cantonese at Hankow. These officials explain that developments at Hankow are of only academic interest to the United States, and while they are being closely watched, they have not reached a point where they might influence the attitude of this government.

Observers here point out that the divergence of action by the powers has greatly strengthened the position of China. Heretofore the powers have been more or less united and thus have been able to keep Chinese aspirations safely in check, but now with the foreign front broken up the Chinese are making appreciable headway in their program for obtaining complete equality.

Cabinet Summoned

The cabinet has been summoned to consider the situation.

The foreign office denies that new instructions have yet been sent to O'Malley.

Observers who read the foreign office statement were inclined to believe that it was perhaps not as clear as it might be and the situation was generally accepted to be that while there is no final breakdown in the negotiations there are no prospects of an agreement.

Hankow dispatches state that Chen has refused to sign an agreement with the British because the British are concentrating troops at Shanghai and for him to sign would appear to be an action under duress.

Situation Intensified

SHANGHAI, Feb. 2.—The situation in the Shanghai area was intensified today, with the Cantonese forces commendeering foreign vessels for the transportation of Nationalist troops.

French, Swedish and Japanese steamers at various points have been forcibly taken over by the Nationalists for carrying their troops to Hankow where the Nationalists are being concentrated for a counter move against the southward advance of the Manchurian forces of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin.

A report from Mukden, Chang's headquarters, said Chang's officers have declared that if a single Chinese is killed at Shanghai as a result of the influx of foreign troops, his officers will force Chang Tso-Lin to join the Cantonese forces against the British.

Proposals Of Great Britain

(International News Service)

LONDON, Feb. 2.—Great Britain's proposals to China are being published tonight

The high lights of the proposals are as follows:

Great Britain agrees to revision of the present treaties.

Gfeat Britain agrees to share with the Chinese the administration of areas where Great Bratain has concessions.

Great Bratain agres to recognize modern Chinese law courts.

Great Britain agrees that its subjects pay all taxes levied which are not confiscatory or discriminatory.

Since there is asyet no recognized government in Canton, Great Britain proposes that these proposals be incorporated in local agreements until such a time as it is possible to draw up a treaty with a recognized government.

the situation. While officials refused any definite announcement concerning their plans they admitted the subject was being given serious study.

Many views, some of them extreme, have been advanced as the cause of this unprecedented wave of suicide. Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Darst, chairman of the bishops' crusade of the Episcopal church, had this to say:

"These suicides are but one phase of the restlessness, the murmurings, the rebellion and the turmoil which the world is experiencing today. All of it indicates the desperate need for the kingdom of God to become a reality. When our young people, especially our students, begin to commit suicide in numbers, it is evident that existing conditions are radically wrong."

Fight Over Game.

According to county detectives, the men, and several others whose names were not learned, were playing cards at Erceges' home, when a disagreement arose. In the resultant gunfire Santrach fell, fatally wounded, and Ivanovitch was wounded in the abdomen.

Most of the players fled, leaving Erceges' with the wounded men. Santrach was rushed to the office of Dr. E. W. Cross at Curtisville, where he died. Ivanovitch was taken to a hospital at Tarentum, where it was reported he has little hope of recovery.

Detectives immediately instituted a search for the other participants in the card game in an effort to place responsibility for the shooting.

Local Groundhog Scampers To Home

Sees His Shadow, Sure Enough, And Returns To Burrow

Sun Shines Brightly For Several Hours This Morning —Weather Mild

Did he see his shadow? Well I guess he did! Brer Groundhog who set his alarm to go off on February 2 last fall rolled over in his bed this morning when he heard the jangle, jangle and after several attempts to rub his eyes awake finally managed to find his way out along the long corridor to the surface of the earth.

Arriving at the entrance of his home, which is located out on a hill back of Eastbrook, he was greeted by a warm spring breeze which enticed him for a little stroll. So he waddled his way slowly to the top of the bank and sitting up on his hind legs was about to whistle to his mate when glancing over his shoulder what should he see but a monstrous black groundhog crouching on the ground beside him.

Frightened 'most to death he started down over the bank for his burrow and glancing back saw this monster almost at his heels gliding along on the ground. Mr. Groundhog never stopped to look back again but bolted into his hole and never slacked pace until he hid his head in the pillow of grass from which he so sleepily awoke a few moments before.

He had not seen his shadow for months. No wonder it frightened him. And he was so frightened that he will not venture out again for six more weeks. So while we may bask in the sunlight today and be tempted to lay off that overcoat never mind in a few days we will be wrapping our collar up around our ears and scurrying for a warm place almost as fast as Brer Groundhog did early this morning.

So don't you fool yourself. Mister Groundhog knows his onions.

Lumber Dealers' Convention Will Close Thursday

Technical Trade Discussion Features Today's Session

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 2.—Hart B. Daugherty, of Indiana, Pa., today took over his duties as president of the Retail Lumber Dealers Association of Pennsylvania, at the second day of the dealers' convention ushered in a program of technical trade discussion.

Daugherty was chosen to head the association at the annual election during the opening session, at which G. F. Hoge, of Canonsburg, was chosen first vice president; A. M. Haines, Connellsville, second vice president; G. B. Textor, Wilkinsburg; treasurer; W. B. Stayer, Pittsburgh, assistant secretary; C. W. Iams, national counsel, and Carl Vandervoort, Pittsburgh general counsel.

Anumber of prominent speakers, including Arthur Walwyn Evans, of Wales, a relative of Lloyd George, O'Neill Ryan, of Chicago, and representatives of various civic groups featured the opening program. Following today's discussions, a banquet tomorrow night is to bring the convention to an end.

Ten Firemen In New York Escape Death In Tumble

Firemen Fighting Million Dollar Blaze Are Imperilled As Floor Caves In

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Ten firemen, including Fire Chief Kenlon, miraculously escaped death today when the top floor collapsed at a blaze which did $1,000,000 damage to a building on Broadway opposite the Hotel Ansonia. The place was occupied by Milgrim, exclusive women's clothing store, and thousands of dollars worth of valuable costumes were destroyed.

The firemen dropped from the fourth to the third floor and buried beneath tons of debris. They escaped only because a leaning partition held long enough to allow them to be rescued.

Thousands of persons in the Ansonia and other nearby buildings were routed from their rooms.

Relatives Fail To Claim Vuika's Body

Body of Joe Vuika, who died suddenly at the J. F. Casey Company camp near Moravia, is still at the Cochran morgue unclaimed by relatives. It has been learned that Vuika was married, but that his wife deserted him about six years ago and is supposed to be in Baltimore. The only relative that has been found is a cousin, who says that he is not able to bear the expense of burial. The Casey Company says that he had only been working for them a few days and do not want to bear the expense. It is probable that the county will have to bury the deceased.

Well, if the Senate denies those fellows a seat, it will prove it has no sense of humor.

Three Injured In Film Company Blast At New Jersey Plant

(International News Service)

WEST FORT LEE, N. J., Feb. 2.—Three men were seriously burned in a mysterious explosion today which wrecked the two-story film reduction plant of the Cello Film company here, showering the studio and laboratory of the Universal Pictures corporation with burnig debris. Motion picture film valued at $2,000,000 was imperilled by the explosion.

Beginning To Discover Jordan

Newspapers throughout the state are beginning to discover Lawrence County's member on Governor Fisher's cabinet, Dr. C. G. Jordan, secretary of agriculture.

Here is a write-up noted in a Philadelphia paper:

—Dr. Charles G. Jordan, Secretary of Agriculture in Governor Fisher's Cabinet, is a dirt farmer as well as a minister, and as either, or both, may qualify among top-notchers, his friends declare. He was given the prefix "Dr." by Westminster College, his alma mater, when it conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity upon him.

Besides being secretary of one of the largest departments in the State government, he operates a 300-acre farm in western Pennsylvania and gives it his personal attention. His agricultural activities run much toward feeding livestock and at one time he had 900 feeder lambs on the farm, every one of which, he said, was marketed at the high dollar.

Senate Officials Lift Ballot Boxes From Pittsburgh

Will Allow Gardner To Retain Boxes Used In Allegheny County Probe

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 2.—David S. Barry, Sergeant-At-Arms of the United States Senate, his deputy, John J. McGrain, special deputy John V. Hanlon, and Attorney Jerry South, special representative of the Senate Slush Fund Committee, today appeared at the offices of the Allegheny county commissioners here to claim the ballot boxes used in the county in the last senatorial election, for conveyance to Washington.

"We haven't any plans yet," Barry declared while waiting for the county commissioners. He indicated information might be forthcoming after a conference with the commissioners.

Barry declared he would permit District Attorney Samuel H. Gardner to retain the six ballot boxes which the county prosecutor is holding as evidence in the election investigations in Allegheny county.

Additional Reasons For New Trial In The Mayberry Case

Additional reasons for a new trial were filed by the defense this morning in the case of the Commonwealth against Fred Mayberry, convicted of manslaughter in connection with the death of Emma May Gibson, who was killed in an automobile accident when Mayberry's car crashed into the Gibson car on Highland avenue.

In the additional reasons filed errors of the court are alleged in the admission of certain testimony. When Mayberry was tried the jury first brought in a verdict of involuntary manslaughter, but as this was not charged in the indictment, the jury was told that it could not bring in such a verdict.

Another verdict of manslaughter was then returned. Martin and Martin, attorneys for the defense, contend that as the first verdict was for involuntary manslaughter it was equivalent to a verdict of not guilty. This is denied by the Commonwealth.

BUILDING NEW CRUISERS

OUR navy is admittedly far below the comparative standard prescribed for capital ships by the Washington conference of 1922. This is because we have not kept pace with other leading naval powers in the construction of cruisers, not limited in number or tonnage by the Washington agreement.

We are to participate in an international discussion of further limitation of armaments at Geneva within a few months. The naval officers who are to represent us in that discussion have told us that our prospect of securing the desired action will be better if we go into the conference with an adequate naval building program under way than it we go in without one.

The construction of three cruisers under discussion has been authorized by congress, but the authorization will lapse unless an initial appropriation to carry it into effect shall be made before the middle of this year. The senate yesterday voted in favor of making the appropriation, in order that the first steps may be taken toward the construction of the ships. Sentiment in the house is almost evenly balanced. Sentiment in the white house is against making the appropriation.

President Coolidge's patriotism is not in question. He is just as desirous, no doubt, of providing the country with adequate means of defense as anybody. The question is one of judgment. The president's judgment, in a purely naval matter, is pitted against that of naval experts. Logic as well as the technical facts is on their side.

It should not be forgotten that if the construction of the three cruisers shall be authorized, and if the negotiations at Geneva to apply to cruisers the limitations now applicable to capital ships shall succeed, the building of the cruisers can be stopped at any time.

Congress must not permit the national defense to be weakened, even in the interest of economy. It is better to be safe than to be sorry. There is no militarism involved in letting other nations know that while we are earnestly desirous of reducing our naval strength to the utmost limits of practicability, we do not propose suicidally to reduce while they continue to forge ahead.

THE EUROPEAN EPIDEMIC

THE epidemic in influenza now prevalent in European countries, notably in England, where it caused 667 deaths last week, gives the health authorities of the United States some cause for uneasiness; but they are a unit in declaring that there is no cause for alarm.

Little as is known about the origin of the disease, the fund of knowledge accumulated by the medical profession since it ravaged the country at the close of the war is regarded as sufficient to prevent a repetition of the calamity. Its contagious qualities are thoroughly understood, and the necessity for the isolation of the patient is established. The fact that the sufferer from influenza must be handled with the same safeguards against contact with other persons that are employed in the treatment of diphtheria and scarlet fever was not recognized a few years ago. The individual quarantine is regarded by physicians who have studied the subject as the best available means of holding the disease in check should it progress on a considerable scale to this side of the water.

There are, of course, precautionary measures upon which all health authorities are agreed. Unnecessary exposure to sudden changes of temperature should be avoided. Cold should be promptly treated. Sneezing and expectorating in public are known to spread the disease, and must be stopped out of regard for the general safety. Broadly speaking, the same measures that prudent people take against "catching cold" are the best safeguards against influenza, and they should be sedulously applied.

If the ordinary rules of sanitation shall be generally observed, and if the victims of supposedly common colds will depend less on home remedies and more upon consultation with reputable physicians, the United States need not look upon the ravages of the influenza in Europe with apprehension. England's present plight invokes sympathy rather than fear.

BANISHING THE CRIMINAL

BY COMMON consent, lawlessness, crime, the criminal and the administration of criminal justice combine to form one of America's greatest modern problems. There is Herrin, for instance, and Chicago's savage "beer wars." There are the "crime syndicates," the "bootleg racket," the hijackers and those specialists in machine-gun murder, as well as the middle and lower grades of crime, which are not new though perhaps more prevalent.

One of the fruits of the situation is the enactment in all states of laws providing penalties of greater severity for these crimes. There is a tendency to lock up, for good and all, the habitual and notorious offender and have done with his depredations.

Laws dealing harshly with the habitual criminal are becoming a part of the armor and arsenal of society's war against crime and the criminal. There is nothing new about such laws. From time to time society is made to realize that some of its members are away from home every day they are out of jail.

Legislatures now in session have far up on their calendars legislation of this kind and will doubtlessly consider it fully and soberly. In the Baumes law, New York already has such a statute and while it lacks the solid support of the public it is evidently accomplishing its purpose to reduce crime. And this law which is so successful in arousing opposition to itself and in curtailing crime does nothing more than carry into effect society's decree that it must assume those who repeatedly commit crimes to be incurable criminals and unfit to mingle with society.

It isn't really news unless it contains the quality that makes gossip absorbing.

There is quite a growing sentiment in Pennsylvania for a law that will make the responsible automobile driver responsible for the damage he might make. The law would require those not owning property to take out an insurance policy for at least five thousand dollars to protect anyone they would injure. Nowadays when some irresponsible does a lot of damage he often says "What yer goin' ter do 'bout it?" Everybody should be made to be responsible.

OLD SCENES

Today, after years
Spent in wand'ring about
I returned to the place
Where in youth I set out
To attain fame and fortune
By carving my way,
Not afraid of hard work
Nor averse to some play.

The old house is there
As the day I was born,
But new faces appear,
And the house seems forlorn.
What surprised me the most
Was the size of it all,
For it once seemed quite large,
But 'tis now rather small.

I sought out the spot
Where the old schoolhouse stood,
At the foot of a ridge
In the edge of a wood.
But the distance once great
From my home to that place
Has diminished 'till now
'Tis a few minutes pace.

The schoolhouse is gone,
Not a vestage remains,
But the old wooded hill
Is what puzzles my brains:
It was once mountain high,
I remember so well,
But today it is just
A mere common ground swell.

The creek that swept down
Past the end of the ridge
Was a sizable stream
Neatly spanned by a bridge;
But it's now a small brook
With a whispering flow,
And is nothing at all
Like it seemed long ago.

I gazed on those scenes
Once familiar, now strange,
And I could not see how
Years could work such a change.
Then I pondered it o'er
And at last came to see
All those scenes are the same,
And the change is in me.

Plain Words Are Best.
Five Quintillion.
Poison Gas, Flame Throwers.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1927, By N. Y. American, Inc.

Government estimates the present population of the United States right here at home at 118,628,000. The country has gained 12,917,880 in the last six years, one million and a half in the last year.

All this is encouraging, although it is too slow. We need fifty million more people now to eat surplus products of farms, buy new automobiles and "used car" bargains.

People are the real wealth of the world.

Judge Lindsey on an election technicality is suddenly removed from his place in Denver's juvenile court. The whole country knows the admirable work that Judge Lindsey has done, and agrees with Bonfils of the Denver Post, who "sees a thing clearly and describes it simply," as follows:

"It is manifestly unfair to let a shemeful conspiracy against Judge Lindsey throw him out of office by the fraud it committed. Judge Lindsey is entitled to all the honest ballots cast for him. It is wrong to permit a few crooks to thwart the will of the people by gumming up an election."

Write down 5, then add eighteen zeros and you have five quintillions, the distance in miles to our earth from one of the nearby universes floating in space around us. We thought our universe, the milky way, with our sun a bright speck in it, was all that the Lord created. But that universe is only one little speck in a mass of universes, each an island on its own account.

Within five hundred quintillions of miles of this spot in space there are innumerable universes.

It is easy to say "five quintillions"; utterly impossible for the human mind to conceive what it means. Light, traveling 186,000 miles a second, would travel five quintillion of miles in 1,000,000 years.

Kind hearted ladies and sloppy statesmen that would stop manufacturing of poison gas in the United States, please read facts.

The French war ministry announces that liquid-flame throwing squads will be incorporated in every battalion of the French army.

Every army in Europe at this moment is trained intensely in "defensive chemical warfare" — which means the use of poison gases.

The league of nations talks about discontinuing the use of poison gas, but nations in the league manufacture it, specialize in it, improve on it.

If we ever get into war, which may happen in spite of prayers and amiable ladies' organizations, we shall face the poison gas from the air, everything that chemistry can do to shorten human life and war.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to be ready for it, and how can we be ready for it if we simply watch others getting ready?

In Philadelphia, police, to convict men of driving automobiles recklessly while drunk, will get evidence by blood tests. The blood shows how much alcohol a man has in him.

Those that drink whisky, the bootleg variety now flooding the country, would be interested in the effect of whisky on the blood. Among other things, it discourages the leucocytes, destroying the power of the blood to heal wounds. The bootleg drinker would do well to insure his life. If anything happens to him necessitating an operation he is apt to go from the operating table to the undertaker.

Sybil Bauer, swimming champion, is dead, only 23 years old. She set a world's record for women in the backstroke, held twenty-three world's records in all, and her specialty was short races from 100 meters to one-quarter of a mile.

The early death of this brilliant young woman is a warning against too violent exercise. Straining the heart means shortening life.

A Swiss inventor has made a clock alleged to solve the problem of perpetual motion, which of course it doesn't solve. The thing is wound up by variations in temperature. It has run for a year without being touched. That however, isn't perpetual motion. This earth will get cold, our atmosphere will vanish and at the ether's temperature, "assolute zero," that clock won't run. Nothing is "perpetual" except divine justice.

The Argentine government and a French flying company have contracted for a four-day mail service from France to the Argentine. That's another step toward real flying. It is not far away. Those already old will cross this continent and both oceans by flying machine, before they die.

Few persons in America have a more intimate acquaintance with existing conditions in China than Bishop Alfred W. Gilman, who is Protestant Episcopal missionary bishop of Hankow, which is one of the chief centers of the present disturbances. Bishop Gilman, who is now home on leave of absence has resided in China for 24 years and during that long period he has made a close study of China and the Chinese. His work has been among 40,000,000 Chinese men and women in the region about Wu-han. The Bishop was in Wuchang for two months last fall while the city was besieged by the Cantonese army, which finally captured it. He represented the people of the city at their request in negotiating with the besieging army for terms of capitulation. He has traveled over a large part of the war zone and is personally acquainted with many of those who figure conspicuously in the present troubles.

Dr. Crane's Editorial

THE SMART ALECK

Fanny Heaslip Lea has written an amusing article on the Smart Aleck.

She puts him about the place he belongs. She said the first Smart Aleck was a fool on the king's throne steps. All he got was a laugh and occasionally a good kick from the king.

We forget sometimes that the Smart Aleck is merely the fool in modern dress.

Smart Aleckness is largely a point of view. It is a bystanding, cruel and indifferent way of looking at things. You are never to be interested. You are to have no moral background. Your whole duty is to laugh at humanity, and the more serious a human being is the more he is to be laughed at.

We have discovered, says Miss Lea, that "it is easier to be smart than to be intelligent and all the Smart Aleck needs is a quick tongue and a total disregard of other people's feelings."

The Smart Aleck is own brother to the man who laughs when another has an accident of a serious character, when he falls down or bumps his nose or some such thing.

The ordinary man's sympathies are aroused by such a happening, but a Smart Aleck's risibilities alone are appealed to.

He laughs only for applause, and Miss Lea says he would knife his grandmother for a bon mot.

Smart Aleckness is really a form of the well-known inferiority complex. The Smart Aleck's whole ambition is to achieve "a line." He is of no value as to telling the truth. All he wants is to make some famous saying.

He hates sympathy and prides himself upon admiring nothing. He lacks sincerity, and Miss Lea says he would rather be bright than president.

You have got to use your brains to be president or hold down any other kind of a serious job, but to be a Smart Aleck you need only to use your wits.

What he wants is catch phrases and he is ready to ridicule anything in the world in order to get one.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

COST OF A REPUBLIC.

The cost of all government in the United States is enormous. It is 11½ billion dollars,—nearly 1-6 of the entire annual income of the country. This cost is not only enormous, but it is growing. In 1925, government cost more than twelve times as much as in 1890. The increased cost of government in these 35 years outstepped the growth of population by more than seven to one. In 1925, we spent for government nearly half the value of our railroads. In the five years ending with 1925, the cost of running the federal Government was decreased by one third. But at the same time the cost of running the state and local governments more than doubled. The greatest single item in the cost of government is the public payroll.

During the past five years our state and local governments have put us deeper into debt at the rate of $3,300,000 a day. During 1925, this rate was increased to $3,800,000,—more than ten times as much as it was twenty five years ago. In 1925, more than $600,000, a day was borrowed by the state and local governments for our water supplies and sewage and drainage systems. More than $800,000 a day was borrowed for our schools and school buildings. And more than one million dollars a day was borrowed for our roads, streets, and bridges.

We are finding it hard now to pay only the interest on these immense debts our state and local governments are piling on us. What are we going to do when the time comes to pay off the mortgage?

The public debt in 1925 amounted to 32 billion dollars, or $278 for each man, woman and child in the United States. The debts of the state and local governments were a little more than half of the federal government debt. The federal government debt during the 4 years ending with 1925 was diminished at the rate of $7 a year for each person in the country. But the State and local governments debts were increased at the rate of $9 a year for each person in the country. They are putting us into debt at a faster rate every year.

In 1925 the railroads carried nearly one fourth more freight for each person in the country than they carried four years before. But their rates were so much lower in 1925 than they were in 1921 that the average person was saved more than $6 in 1925 for the cost of his share of railroad freight transportation.

Great as is this saving in the cost of our transportation, it does not balance the yearly debt that the state and local governments are piling on to every person. For every dollar the railroads save us in the cost of transportation, our state and local governments add one dollar and a half to our load of debt. Every dollar of interest on government bonds, is simply a dollar of taxes. Every dollar of taxes comes out of someone's pocket.

"LA BELLE DAME SANS MERCI,"

By John Keats.

Richard Le Gallienne considers this the greatest short poem in the English language; but I have already told that my choice is Keat's Ode on a Grecian Urn." I have always thought of Keats as the greatest poet since Shakespeare—one who, drenched in beauty, conveyed his love of the gospel of loveliness as no other English poet has succeeded in doing—no, not ever Shelley.

"Oh what can ail thee, knight-at-arms,
Alone and paley loitering?
The sedge has withered from the lake,
And no birds sing.

"O what can ail thee, knight-at-arms!
So haggard and so woebegone?
The squirrel's granary is full,
And the harvest's done.

"I see a lily on thy brow
With anguish moist and fever dew,
And on thy cheeks a fading rose
Fast withereth too."

"I met a lady in the Meads,
Full beautiful—a fairy's child:
Her hair was long, her foot was light,
And her eyes were wild.

"I made a garland for her head,
And bracelet too, and fragrant zone;
She looked at me as she did love,
And made sweet moan,

"I set her on my pacing steed
And nothing else saw all day long.
For sidelong would she bend, and sing
A fairy's song.

"She found me roots of relish sweet,
And honey wild and manna dew,
And sure in language strange she said,
I love thee true.'

"She took me to her elfin grot,
And there she wept, and sighed full sore,
And there I shut her wild eyes
With kisses four.

"And there she lulled me asleep
And there I dreamed—ah! woe betide!
The latest dream I ever dreamt
On the cold hill side.

"I saw pale Kings and Princes too,
Pale warriors, death-pale were they all;
They cried—'La Belle Dame sans Merci
Hath thee in thrall!'

"I saw their starved lips in the gloam
With horrid warning gaped wide,
And I awoke and found me here
On the cold hill's side.

"And this is why I sojourn here
Alone and palely loitering,
Though the sedge is withered from the lake
And no birds sing."

Board Members Of Almira Home Have Meeting

Members of the board of managers of the Almira Home met Tuesday afternoon in the manager's room at the Home with the president, Mrs. J. L. Stratton, presiding.

A number of the members were unable to be present on account of illness. Arrangements were made to have some repairs made on the building.

All of the 43 rooms of the Home are now occupied. A number of ladies from the five counties are on the waiting list.

Orchestra Man Flyer In War

From Battling Above Clouds To Peaceful Viola Playing His Experience

WITH ORCHESTRA ON FEBRUARY 10

From the stern business of piloting a fighting aeroplane over the bloody fields of Flanders to the position of first viola player of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra is the transition experience by Paul Lemay, who is to appear with the Orchestra in the Scottish Rite Cathedral on Thursday, February 10th.

Mr. Lemay well understands the difference between being literally up in the clouds in pursuit of an enemy plane and soaring in the clouds of sentiment to which great music lifts one. As a matter of fact, Mr. Lemay prefers not to discuss the subject. Like so many American lads who were "over there," he seems to think of it all as a nightmare, an unreal thing to mention which but brings back hideous sights best forgotten.

But again, like many thousands of Yanks, it was not easy for him to drop into civilian life after the thrill of conflict. So, for a period following the Armistice, he operated a giant Handley-Paige machine in the Paris-London service. But this soon palled, for after all, it was purely mechanical. Nothing left to the imagination. And the business of transporting passengers through the air lacked interest.

Returning to New York, the aviator again turned to his music which he had absolutely deserted for nearly three years. Joining a string quartet, he toured every section of America. Passing through Minneapolis, he was struck by the beauty of the city. He already knew of the Symphony Orchestra. Negotiations followed which led up to his present position as solo viola player of the organization.

There may be another war sometime. If it comes, Paul Lemay will put away his beloved instrument, and again take to the air. Until then, his flights will be in fancy, and to the accompaniment of the master orchestra of which he is one of the principals.

Just Folks

VANITY

The more I see it seems to me, the trouble with us all
Is that we grow too big in pride, in trial shrink too small;
For when the good Lord prospers us and happiness is ours,
We take the credit to ourselves and boast about our powers,
But when our skies are overcast and plans have gone astray,
We wonder why the Lord above should punish us that way.

We fancy we were born to smile, to dance our way along
That our particular lives should be one endless round of song,
And when delight is ours to know and we're victorious,
We act as though we'd merely gained what ought to come to us;
But let the storms of trouble rage, We wince beneath the blow,
And wonder why the Lord above takes vengeance on us so.

Too big in pride; too little in life's sterner tests are we.
We strut the world in arrogance when we are trouble free,
And then we whimper in despair and falter in belief,
Forgetting that to all who live come pain and loss and grief.
Although about us day by day we've watched the shadows fall,
We blame it on the Lord when we must share the fate of all.

Lord, make me bigger in my loss and smaller in my gain,
Teach me to see from Thee each day come both delight and pain,
Teach me to understand my tears; to know why they are sent
That I may never cry aloud against Thy punishment.
Teach me to know that joy and grief walk ever side by side,
Let me grow bigger in my faith, and smaller in my pride.

H. A. Shaffer of Moody avenue, is confined to his home with a badly sprained right ankle. The injury was sustained when Mr. Shaffer, who is a brakeman on the B. and O. railroad slipped and fell from the train Tuesday.

In the wicked old days you could be a good host without knowing anything about first aid measures.

Dry Law Vote Aim Of Bill

State Legislature Has Prohibition Measures Up For Consideration

SESSION OF HOUSE HELD THIS MORNING

BY ROBERT F. GORMAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Feb. 2.—For the purpose of passing a dozen or so bills to second reading members of the house of representatives will reconvene at 10 o'clock this morning for a short session and then follow in the footsteps of the senate—adjourn until next Monday night.

By passing about twelve bills which were reported out of committees yesterday on first reading at the morning session today and a couple on second reading the house will lay the foundation for a busy session next Monday night.

In the hopper of the house today were two bills on the prohibition question, introduced by Joseph G. Steedle, of Allegheny. They were the first introduced this session to have aroused much enthusiasm from members of the body and lobbyists in the assembly halls. One would repeal the Snyder-Armstrong Act of 1923 and the other provides for a referendum on the prohibition question to be put up to the people next November.

Although bills in the lower body are being introduced in large numbers, 155 going into the hopper yesterday with the figure already standing near 300, there are few important measures among them, and it is expected that scores of them will never emerge from committee rooms.

Boy Scout News

Troop 18

Troop 18 had a large number of scouts present at their meeting last night. Assistant Scoutmaster Bott was in charge owing to the fact that R. F. Davis, Scoutmaster, was attending a First Aid meeting.

Twenty three members of the troop were present, with 7 cub scouts and 5 visitors, making a total of 35. No committeemen were present.

Paul Swift, Dick Byers, Howard Gates, Paul Elder, and Bill Wheeler were presented with certificates for the coming year.

At the close of the meeting, Mr. Bott was presented with two certificates by Scout Commissioner Irwin. One of these was the assistant scoutmaster certificate, and the other a certificate for the coming year.

There is room for three more boys in this troop, and Mr. Davis would like to have them join at the meeting Tuesday, February 8.

American Legion Troop

The regular weekly meeting of the new American Legion troop was held Monday evening, at the Thaddeus Stevens School.

Committemen Roger Benson, Earl Sowers, Wilbur White, and Wilbert Hughes were present. Eighteen scouts were in attendance, including one new member. Three visitors, James Hiles, Warren Dwyer, and Robert Frazier of troop 19 were present also. A knot tying contest is soon to be held between troop 19 and the new troop.

Scoutmaster Hoye, in charge of the meeting, drilled the boys in marching and other work of that nature. February 4, this troop is going to give a demonstration of its work in the Legion Home.

Troop 17

Troop 17 held an interesting meeting with Scoutmaster Shultz, twelve scouts, and one committeeman in attendance.

Rev. Walter E. McClure, the speaker of the evening, gave the boys a very fine talk. He asked the boys the game they liked best and then centered his talk on the Sacrific Hit in Baseball. He showed the boys how their parents and Saviour had sacrificed things for them. The boys appreciated Rev. McClure's speaking to them very much.

Mrs. McClure has now promised to speak to the members of this troop on February 11. The boys have arranged to make this Mother's Night. Refreshments will be served.

Games were played and two new members, Kirk Pattison and Sydney Blackford, were admitted. The results of the games played are: Chicken Fight—Kenneth Atkinson; Horse and Buggy race—Buschman and Hartley, first and Miller and Cannon, second; Combination race—Ray Atkinson; Indian Wrestle—John Rudolph, first, and Kenneth Atkinson, second.

Make Decision On Ellwood-New Castle Football Proposition

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—The football situation was discussed at the regular monthly meeting of the board of education last night in their room in the Lincoln school.

H. W. Smith, chairman of the Athletic committee who visited New Castle recently to discuss a possible Ellwood-New Castle game presented a kindly letter from Supt. F. L. Orth of the New Castle Senior High school.

After discussing pro and con the members decided that the thing to do was to write a reply to Mr. Orth and have both letters published in the papers, permission having been secured from the New Castle principal.

F. L. Orth's letter follows:

Mr. H. W. Smith,
Ellwood City, Pa.

My Dear Mr. Smith:—

Since my last conversation with you I have talked with the members of our athletic committee, with several business men, with members of our board of education and with members of the Chamber of Commerce. All of these are serious and fair minded men.

They are all desirous that a harmonious and friendly feeling exist between the people of Ellwood City and New Castle. They all agree that a neighborly feeling is of more importance than the results of a football game one way or another. They also agree that there is too much publicity being given high school football between the two cities at the present time.

We of the high school and also of the serious minded people of New Castle want to be fair and square in the matter.

It is the opinion of all of the men with whom I have held conversation that the best solution of the present difficulty is to discontinue football for a year or two. They all feel that this procedure will have more effect in preserving the good will between the two cities than any other course that could be taken.

Furthermore we believe that the people of Ellwood City who think seriously about the matter will agree that this course is the proper one to take under the existing circumstances.

We of the high school regret that such an action is necessary and hope that before long we may resume football relations with the Ellwood City High school.

Very respectfully,
(Signed)
FRANK L. ORTH.
Principal Senior High School.

Mr. Smith's reply follows:

February 1, 1927.

Mr. Frank L. Orth,
Principal New Castle Senior High School,
New Castle, Pa.

My Dear Mr. Orth:—

I wish to thank you very much for your letter of January 24 regarding the football situation. The matter has been discussed in our athletic council and the men are agreed that your proposition to discontinue football for the present is the best thing to do.

The people of Ellwood City are just as anxious as those of New Castle to maintain friendly relations between the two communities, and the athletic council is willing to make any reasonable concessions to that end, although they cannot agree on having the game played in New Castle.

We trust that the time will not be long before football may be resumed on the same basis as before.

Yours very truly,
(Signed)
H. W. SMITH.

The football matter being disposed of for the present at least, the members of the board turned their attention to routine business. J. W. Offutt of the finance committee reported a letter from the board's attorney on the question of whether the board would be entitled to any funds derived from the sale of the poor house by the borough. Investigation of the matter revealed that owing to the county poor institution being built all funds shall be regulated by the county poor committee.

Mr. Hemmerly suggested that someone be appointed to remain in the Hartman school during various scout meetings as indications have been that the girl scouts have not kept the quarters alloted to them but roamed the building to the detriment of a window pane and minor annoyances.

Supt. Smith gave his school report for the month of December and mentioned the necessity of making plans for commencement exercises. The board acted favorably on the suggestion that Supt. Smith be permitted to make these arrangements at his own discretion.

Women Hear Two Fine Readings At Monthly Meeting

Washington And Lincoln Are Discussed By Women's Club Members

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—An interesting character sketch of the life of George Washington was given by Mrs. Streeter before a good attendance of members of the local Womens club at their regular monthly meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Presbyterian church. Far from the cut and dried statistics of the usual "paper," Mrs. Streeter portrayed an interesting and human character.

Mrs. Edward Mackasek's interpretation on paper of the life of Lincoln painted a vivid picture of that interesting man's career, keeping her listeners aroused with anecdotes of his life from boyhood to the time of his tragic demise.

A brief business session was conducted by President Renner, at which time an invitation was read from the New Castle Women's club inviting the local members to meet in New Castle next Monday afternoon at which time several state officers of the federation will speak and an interesting session is anticipated.

Hostesses of the day were: Mesdames T. B. Magee, J. Reed Carpenter, W. R. Thompson and Ferd Zeigler.

Mrs. Swanson Is Hostess To Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—Mrs. Fred Swanson entertained the members of the Ellwood City-Beaver Falls Bridge club, Tuesday afternoon, at her home on Crescent avenue, with a one o'clock luncheon. Decorations were carried out in Valentine colors, and the afternoon hours passed pleasantly in bridge.

A special guest was Mrs. B. M. Lawther who was given a guest gift while Mrs. Harold Seidel received the club prize.

Local members of the club are Mesdames W. R. Thompson, F. H. Swanson, H. D. Patterson, W. W. Seidel and Harold Seidel.

Motor Officials Interested In Zelienople Road

Local Officials In Conference With Beaver County Commissioners Yesterday

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—President Burton J. Bell and Manager Frederic Smith of the local motor club drove to Beaver Tuesday afternoon to interview a number of county commissioners of Beaver county.

They discussed at length the Ellwood-Zelienople road, state route No. 347. At present the outlook for completion is not very favorable, as funds are not available at this time.

However, the Beaver county commissioners have not as yet interviewed the new highway secretary, John L. Stuart, at Harrisburg, relative to what aid the state can give Beaver county on 1927 road construction work. However, something may interest Ellwood City after such conference is conducted.

Open Sessions In Schools In April

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—Officials of the local schools have arranged to have open sessions in the various schools on the following nights: North Side and West End schools, Monday evening, March 28; Hartman and Circle schools, Monday evening, April 4; Central school, Monday, April 11. A regular program of all classes will be conducted the same as during the day from 7 to 8:30 o'clock. Patrons and teachers will have conferences from 8:30 to 9 o'clock.

Last year these night sessions were very successful from the standpoint of interest shown by school patrons, teachers, pupils and the community in general. The number of adults visiting the various schools were: Circle school, 150; Hartman school, 486; Central school, 369; North Side school, 677, and West End school, 157.

P. H. C. President Names Committees

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—President C. H. Webster, at the regular semi-monthly session of the Baird Circle, last night in the Columbus hall selected the following committees to act for three months.

Auditing committee—H. B. McCullough, Miss Jessie Thomas, and Carl Webster; Good of the Order committee—Mrs. Mary Malony, Miss Mary Hudspath, Mrs. Susanne Stevenson, Mrs. May White, Mrs. Francis McCaslin; Relief committee—C. E. Webster, Arthur Main, Oscar Hoover, Mrs. Julia Buquo, Mrs. Ella Cogley and Mrs. Ida Duncan; Music committee — Mrs. Irene Lowry, Miss Jessie Thomas and Miss Lillian Anderson; Flower committee—Mrs. Iva Forsyth, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Gladys Anders.

A program consisting of vocal and instrumental numbers was given and a delicious lunch was served by the committee.

The next regular meeting of the lodge will take place February 15, at 7:30 sharp.

Junior Class Play To Be Given Soon

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—Members of the Junior class will present their annual play at the Liberty theatre Tuesday evening, March 1. The name of the play is "The New Poor" and a fine cast has been selected to portray the various characters. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon a matinee will be conducted for the school children.

T. N. T. CLUB.

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—Mrs. Herman Wilson and Mrs. William Bayers will be joint hostesses at a six o'clock dinner Thursday evening to the members of the T. N. T. club.

DEGREE TEAM

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—Members of the Ladies' Orange lodge degree team will meet in the lodge rooms in the First National bank building, Thursday afternoon, for practice.

Taking Vote On Hotel Project

Ellwood City Hears Of Plans For Community Hotel

ANNOUNCE RESULT FRIDAY AFTERNOON

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—To be or not to be, that is the City Hotel project, that is being decided this week by a referendum that the members of the Chamber of Commerce are engaging in. The Chamber Board in meeting on Friday afternoon will announce the decision when the votes are counted. This was the main announcement last evening at the Forum Dinner of the Chamber of Commerce held in the dining room of the Presbyterian church.

Over sixty of Ellwood City's business leaders met with President Daley and the officers and heard fine inspirational hotel addresses by W. S. Grenoble, President of the Grenoble Hotels Inc., and F. E. Downes, Eastern District Manager of the Hockenberry System, Inc. These hotel men are leaders in the country in raising finances and operating Community Hotels.

Mr. Grenoble said in part that it was a great day in hotel operation when they could be operated successfully without the bar. He stated that the greatest business for hotels has developed since 1920, as hotel people have turned from the bars to better management of hotels and have raised them to the high standard of good sound business and service. With the increase of travel, occasioned by the completion of wonderful highways, the radius of travel has so expanded that the demand of this business has increased by leaps and bounds. Business has also been modernized to such an extent that man is travelling more, and seeking good hotels, fireproof in construction, and as a consequence communities are building hotels very fast in all parts of the country.

At present Ellwood City does not beckon to that traveler, and Mr. Grenoble stated that people would be surprised at the number of travelers, that visit friends, and trade visits with good hotels in various towns and cities.

Center Of Activities

The hotel is the center of the city's community activities. It is the meeting place for both men and women for their meetings and civic gatherings. It offers the real place for Civic clubs for their regular get-togethers. Mr. Grenoble stated that the party business was now giving the hotel much better revenue at this time, than the "wet goods" did years ago. He stated that the most successfully operated hotels in the country, were those operated by chain operation. The local directors have a chance for direct management, and the operation company, of course, is looking for profits, and if they are secured, the stockholders will benefit.

The organization, that Mr. Grenoble heads, has made a complete study of the hotel operation business, planning construction to fit the town's needs, and design, and equipment that such an establishment requires. They are also connected with a hotel training school that is doing much for the betterment of management in training Americans for hotel professions. The hotel school is making a particular stress at this time for American cooks.

The organization also gives the benefit of the standardized operation service. Furniture and equipment is purchased that can be replaced from standard stock. The personnel includes the best that can be secured, and employes are advanced as they prove fit for such positions as the operating company opens new hotels.

The Grenoble Corporation operates hotels in such places as Onieda, N. Y., Urichsville, Ohio, Saint Clair, Mich., Plymouth, and Macombe, Ill. They have made a complete survey of the Ellwood City situation and have been assisting the Ellwood Committee considerably in working out the details of the plan.

Financing

Mr. Downes of the Hockenberry System, Inc., gave an excellent address to the Chamber members concerning financing a community hotel. He stated that a community hotel, was one not owned by a few of the community but by hundreds of local stockholders. Each stockholder was a booster of the proposition, and that over 125 communities have been financed in this plan and that a motorist could travel from the Canadian border to the Gulf and from the Atlantic to the Pacific and stop each night in a Community hotel. If they are being a success in other places, they could operate a Community hotel in Ellwood City that should be a success here also.

Attorney J. W. Humphries is chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Hotel Committee. The committee and Secretary Foley have worked very hard studying various plans and they are to be highly complimented on the service that they have rendered the Chamber of Commerce and the Community, about Ellwood City.

Rev. A. M. Stevenson lead the gathering during the dinner in pep songs with Prof. Bartel at the piano. President T. C. Daley reported that on Friday, the directors of the Chamber would meet to ascertain the vote sentiment of the Chamber in reference to the final decision, or To Be or Not To Be.

It looks as if Ellwood City would have a fine community hotel.

BOROUGH COUNCIL.

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—Members of the Ellwood City borough council will conduct their regular monthly meeting Thursday evening in the city building. At this time several matters of importance will come up,

Local Motor Club To Have Conference On February 16

Visiting Wives To Be Entertained During Afternoon Hours

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—The Motor club committee on arrangements for the Inter-club conference to take place here February 16, has completed plans for a banquet for the guests, motor club members and their wives. The event will take place in the dining room of the Trinity Lutheran church.

During the afternoon hours, President Burton J. Bell, assisted by Mrs. Bell will keep open house for the wives of the visiting clubmen. At this event the wives of officers and board of directors of the club will act as a Reception commitee.

This will be the first social affair since the organization of the Motor club one year ago.

Mrs. Cunningham Is Hostess To O. Of E. S. Officers

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—Mrs. Audley Cunningham charmingly entertained the officers of the Eastern Star at her home on Fountain avenue Tuesday evening.

The decorations were carried out in dainty valentine motifs, and the affair opened auspiciously with a Six o'clock dinner at table centered with red tapers, and guest-places marked with diminutive valentines.

Special guests were Mrs. Caroline Lindsley, Mrs. S. F. Wry and Mrs. C. W. Biles of Pittsburgh.

Ellwood Defendants Lose Court-Suit

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Feb. 2.—W. H. Martin of Beaver Falls was awarded a verdict of $2,041. 66 2-3 by a jury in the local courts yesterday against Loring L. Gelbach et al. of Ellwood City. The case was tried before Judge William A. McConnel and occupied all of thre days, being opened last Thursday.

Martin who is a real estate agent sued the Ellwood City firm to recover commissions which he calimed was due him from the sale of the building on Seventh avenue, Beaver Falls, formerly occupied by the John A. Butler, Inc., and now owned and occupied by Woolworth & Co. Gelbach and his associates claimed Martin had no part in the final deal, but admitted that he did make some of the arrangements when the parties were first brought together in 1924.

Miss Weiscoph Hostess To Club

ELLWOOD CITY Pa., Feb. 2.—Miss Agnes Weiscoph of Ewing Park entertained the members of the Modern Bridge Club last evening at her home.

State College Men Speaking

Farmers Hear Instructive Addresses At Lawrence County Meetings

R. H. Olmstead dairy specialist, and J. B. R. Dickey specialist in crops and soils, both of State College are in Lawrence county attending the series of meetings this week being sponsored by the Lawrence County Agriculture association.

Yesterday two meetings were held, one at the farm of Dr. Fredrick Taylor near Pulaski and another at the Plain Grove church Good turnouts are reported for both of these meetings.

Mr. Olmstead spoke on "Dairy Feeding and Management" while Mr. Dickey had as his subject "Soil Fertility and Growing of Legumes."

Today three meetings are scheduled, one at the farm of William Leslie, near Princeton, at 10:30 this morning, another at 2 p. m. at the Mt. Hope school and the evening session at the school which will begin at 8 o'clock.

The instructors from State College will use the same subjects at all meetings and will be ready to answer any questions asked.

The program for the rest of the week is as follows: Thursday at farm of R. S. McAnlis near New Galilee at 2 p. m., and the Liberty Grange hall for the 8 o'clock session Friday 2 and 8 p. m. meetings at Old Enon, Little Beaver township.

Every one is invited to attend thes meetings especially the farmers as many interesting facts will be introduced.

United States Not To Recognize Sacasa As Nicaraguan Head

United States Looks Upon Sacasa As Revolutionist; Kellogg Firm

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2. — The American Government will not recognize Dr. Juan B. Sacasa, claimant to the presidency of Nicaragua, even should he be completely successful in his revolution against the Diaz government, Secretary of State Kellogg said today.

The State Department, he said, would recognize any president of Nicaragua, however, who gained the position by "constitutional means." Sacasa is considered a revolutionist.

Kellogg denied that American marines in Nicaragua had unjustly treated the liberal revolutionists. On the other hand, he said, they had given medical aid to liberals wounded in clashes with the federalists.

Work Out Details Of Ballot Seizure In Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 2. — David S. Barry, Sergeant-At-Arms of the U. S. Senate, and his deputies will probably begin seizing the 1,400 Allegheny county ballot boxes tomorrow, it was learned this afternoon.

Barry will ask the county commissioners to call in the boxes to a central point, he said, to facilitate collection for conveyance to Washington, D. C., where they will be turned over to the senate "slush fund" committee.

The first formal step Barry will take is to get a court order for the seizure of the boxes. County Commissioner E. V. Babcock, and District Attorney H. Gardner have pledged their full co-operation in getting the disputed ballots in the Vare-Wilson senatorial contest to the National Capital as quickly as possible.

A conference of the county officials with senate representative was scheduled for later this afternoon to work out details.

Says Coal Cause For Greatness Of Pennsylvania

Dr. George H. Ashley Declares Coal Has Given Keystone State Its Lead

COMPARISONS ARE PRESENTED

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—If there were no coal fields in Pennsylvania, fully two-thirds of the present population would not be living here, Dr. George H. Ashley asserted today in an attack in the weekly bulletin of the State Department of Forests and Waters.

Dr. Ashley cited a number of coal producing counties and compared them with those adjacent which must depend upon other sources than mining for their wealth.

Would Be Tenth In U. S.

Instead of being a contender for first place among the states as at present, Pennsylvania without coal, Dr. Ashley said, would not be as high as tenth in population, industry and wealth. It was pointed out that as an agricultural state Pennsylvania is fourteenth and without coal farming would be the chief industry. The fact that Pennsylvania is thirty-second in size and that nearly one half of the counties are more than one half in forests was stressed in the article.

"A few local camparisons may be of interest," Dr. Ashley wrote. "The counties of Lackawanna, Luzerne and Schuylkill are in the anthracite field. They have a combined area of 2,120 square miles, a population of 895,056 in 1920 and an industry of which the output in 1921, a lean year, was $613,829,900. We will compare them with four nearby counties, having about the same area, 2,040 square miles, Columbia, Monroe, Pike and Wyoming. These four counties had a population of 93,563 in 1920 and a combined industrial output valued at $44,534,100, about one-fourteenth the amount of the former three.

Gives Comparisons

"Or compare Luzerne and Huntingdon counties which are about the same size and have other points of similiarty. The population of Luzerne county 1920 was 391,001, or 438.3 per square mile. Huntingdon county had a population of 39,848, of 43.4 to the square mile, practically one-tenth of the population of Luzerne county. The value of mining and manufacture in Luzerne county in 1921 was $304,662,900, while the value of industry in Huntingdon county the same year was $9,549,800, or about one-thirty-fifth as much.

"Even if we take out of the two counties the value of the coal mined therein there is left a figure which only can be explained on the basis of the presence of the coal. For example, the value of the coal mined in Luzerne county was $223,401,900 which, subtracted from the total, leaves for Luzerne $81,260,900 for the value of other products. The coal mining of Huntingdon county in 1921 produced a value of $1,331,400. This figure subtracted from the total, left only $8,218,400. Is there any doubt that the coal mines of Luzerne county were primarily responsible for this tenfold difference?

"Again, we may compare Allegheny and Franklin counties. Allegheny county has 725 square miles and Franklin county has 751 square miles. Allegheny county in 1920 had a population of 1,185,808, or 1,635.6 people per square mile. Franklin county, which is a little larger, had a population of 62,275, or 82.9 people per square mile, one-two-hundredth as many.

"The value of mining, metallurgy and manufacturing in Allegheny in 1921 was $1,170,810,800 and for Franklin county $14,949,500, or one-eighty-third as much. Of the Allegheny county total, $536,000,000 was the value of the metallurgy of iron and other metals, and $280,000,000 the value of secondary manufacture of metallic products. Is there any doubt that most of this difference can be attributed to the presence and mining of coal in Allegheny county?

WAKED IN NIGHT IN AGONY OF PAIN

Better in twenty minutes after simple home treatment

Seized in the night with a pain in her side like pleurisy, an Oakland, California, woman got quick and complete relief by prompt home treatment.

"I applied Sloan's Liniment," she writes, "and now I shall never allow one bottle to be empty before buying another. In twenty minutes I was better. In a very short time—peacefully asleep."

The reason that Sloan's gets these remarkable results is that it doesn't just deaden the nerves. It stirs up your own curative forces to throw off the conditions that are causing the trouble.

Pat it on lightly—no need to rub. It's the medicine that does the work.

Immediately you feel a warm, comfortable glow as fresh, healing blood begins circulating through the affected spot. Tense, contracted muscles relax, congestion is broken up, the pain stops. So clean, pleasant and easy to use, too. All druggists—35 cents.

CONGRESS MAY AID IN BUILDING ROAD ALONG OHIO RIVER

BELLAIRE, O., Feb. 2.—Construction of a difficult section of the Ohio river highway between here and Powhatan was discussed today by W. C. Fawcett of Martins Ferry, locating engineer for the state highway department, and A. W. Morgan of Cleveland, chief engineer of the Ohio Public Service Company, which will erect a big electric plant at Dilles, on the route of the road.

It is proposed to start work next month if Congress will lend sufficient financial assistance to the state and Belmont county to help overcome difficulties of construction necessitated by the steep hills that flank the narrows along the river. Congressman Frank Murphy of Steubenville, member of the House appropriations committee is expected to help obtain such aid. It was announced following a conference in the governor's office last week.

WHY WOMEN LOOK FADED

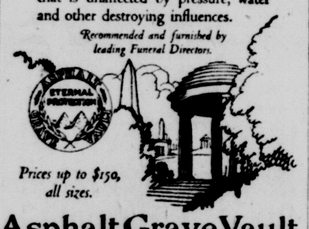

Science says long retention of wastes in bowels invites system poisoning, which doctors call Toxaemia—it being the underlying cause of unsightly skin blemishes that ruin complexion and make folks look faded and old. Any one of forty symptoms may mean oncoming Toxaemia—languidness, backache, worry over trifles, nervousness, sleeplessness, poor appetite, any miserable feeling—it's time to act! Take Partola—in pleasant, mint-flavored, mild acting, laxative tablets. Rid your system of poisonous wastes, then watch skin clear up, complexion become radiantly beautiful, youthful appearance return. Any good druggist sells regular box 30c, double size 50c.

The Security of the most Expensive Mausoleum

Tomorrow's Trend

ROYAL SEDAN $1595 F. O. B. DETROIT

In the light of past Chrysler achievements it is easy to appreciate the full significance of the finer Chrysler "70".

It is easy to understand how its distinctive style and smartness forecast a fresh vogue in motoring.

Three years ago the first Chrysler with its previously unknown measures of performance, and a host of refinements and improvements new to the industry at its price, created a new school of design, which others promptly emulated.

And now, this finer "70" with its more exquisitely graceful bodies, its greater luxury, its smaller wheels and its more attractive color blendings—and its new low prices—further widens the gap between itself and the conventional and commonplace.

Joined to Chrysler's characteristic speed and pick-up, unvarying dependability and enduring long life, proved by hundreds of thousands of owners, this new eye-compelling beauty and alluring luxury and comfort, leave today's trend as far behind as the original Chrysler "70" advanced beyond the styles of three years ago.

Phaeton $1395; Sport Phaeton $1495; Two-passenger Roadster (with rumble Seat) $1495; Brougham $1525; Two-passenger Coupe (with Rumble Seat) $1545; Royal Sedan $1595; Two-passenger Convertible Cabriolet (with Rumble Seat) $1745; Crown Sedan $1795. All prices f.o.b. Detroit, subject to current Federal excise tax.

Claims Royalties Not Paid, Starts Suit For Huge Sum

Ford Employe Starts Suit For $1,750,000 As Share Of Royalties

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Feb. 2.—Suit for $1,750,000 was filed against the Ford Motor company today by Antonio Felix Pajalich, who claims he was refused royalties and other moneys promised him for patents he perfected during six years with the auto firm.

Pajalich is the "Tony" whom visitors were frequently introduced to by Henry Ford. He shared an office with Ford, who admired him for his skill. At Dearborn laboratory, he claims, he invented parts which have been used by the millions.

Ford promised him royalties, he says, but refused to pay on the grounds that it was folly to make "fools" wealthy.

The Antivenin Institute of America, which was established through the co-operation of Harvard University and the Mulford Biological Laboratories of New Orleans, has just opened at Tela, Honduras, the largest station and laboratory in the world for the segregation of snakes and the extraction and drying of their poison. The poison is transformed into serum, for the cure of snake bites.

Detain Negro In Shooting Episode

Attack Made As Auto Speeds Through Braddock—Negro Is Arrested

BELIEVE ARSON RING IS BROKEN

News Notes From Various Cities And Districts In Keystone State

(International News Service)

BRADDOCK, Feb. 2.—Shortly after several men in a speeding automobile fired a volley of shots at the home of Robert Wright, a negro, Frank Drano, of Braddock was arrested here as the owner of the car used in the attack. He admitted ownership of the car, found abandoned, but denied participation in the shooting.

MONESSEN—Police here believe they have broken up an arson ring responsible for six fires, with the arrest of Ulder Sago, Vasco Zirolly and Pasquella Labina, all of Monessen. One of the men confessed, authorities said.

PITTSBURGH—Fire which swept third floor of an apartment house near the University of Pittsburgh caused damage estimated at $10,000. Heavy smoke, which poured from the burning building so frightened onlookers that they sent in alarms for additional fire fighters.

GREENSBURG—Believed to be suffering from a fractured skull, J. L. Richardson, 30, of Braddock, a flagman on the Pennsylvania railroad, was in a hospital here today. Richardson fell from his train at Grapeville, near here.

NEWPORT—Before the eyes of playmates, Russell Emery, 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emery, of this borough, fell from the banks of a mill race here, was swept beneath the ice and drowned. His playmates too excited to effect rescue notified the childs' parents and his body was recovered.

PHILADELPHIA—The body of an unidentified man found on the Reading railroad tracks near Noble was in the Abington morgue today awaiting identification. The body was badly mangled.

PHILADELPHIA—Upper Darby township plans to let insurance companies have the worry of any future damage suits that may arise from accidents on its sidewalks and highways, for which the township might be held responsible. Bids are being sought for a blanket insurance policy covering allaccidents due to defective streets or paving. The action was taken as a result of heavy damage suits which have depleted the township treasury.

SOUDERTON—Ernest W. Strasser's old three story blacksmith and carriage plant, one of the landmarks of the city is doomed. The old smithy, for 54 years Strasser's home and workshop is to be demolished to permit construction of an approach for Souderton's new traffic subway under the Reading railway tracks.

PHILADELPHIA—Mrs. Alma M. Heickle, of Wyneewood, a suburb, is Philadelphia's first woman motorist to be convicted of manslaughter for the death of a pedestrain. Mrs. Heickle on July 9 last, ran down and killed a five year old girl. A jury convicted her of voluntary and involuntary manslaughter yesterday in quarter sessions court here without leaving the box.

Traffic Officer Jackson Now In Good Health

Indigestion and Run-Down Condition, Threatening Health, Quickly Relieved by Tanlac. Kidneys Strengthened

The thousands of men and women who have been helped by Tanlac prove that nearly everyone can enjoy good health, strength and youthful energy. William A. Jackson, 1844 South Yewdell Street, Philadelphia, an efficient, popular member of the Traffic Squad in his city, recently said "For more than a year I had such severe pains in my stomach that I feared I had appendicitis and was terribly worried. I had no appetite for food. And when I ate my stomach would bloat with gas which caused hours of suffering.

"Whenever I moved, a pain shot across the small of my back. And weak kidneys disturbed my night's rest. I tried a great many treatments in the search for relief, without success. Then I resorted to Tanlac.

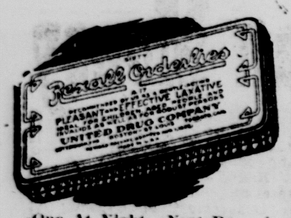

"And this wonderful tonic has relieved all of my troubles. My stomach is in fine shape. I am enjoying a wonderful appetite. I sleep soundly and have better health than in years."

Tanlac, nature's remedy made from roots, barks and herbs according to the famous Tanlac formula, usually brings wonderful relief to suffering people. It helps build up strength and restore good health. Begin taking this wonder tonic now. At all druggists. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Pymatuning Dam Is Discussed At Sharon Meeting

SHARON, Pa., Feb. 2.—The Pymatuning dam and industrial development in the Shenango Valley were the subjects of two talks last night before the February meeting of the Sharon section of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers here. Ralph J. Ferris, resident engineer on the dam construction, discussed engineering features of the work, which involve conversion of several hundred acres of swamp into reservoirs of potential value to industry and agriculture. Fred T. Fruit, attorney, counsel for the development, spoke of legal aspects of the project, and reviewed its local history.

H. L. Cole, of Sharon, presided at the meeting. Several members attended from Warren and Youngstown, Ohio, and New Castle, Pa.

KISSING LENGTHENS LIFE

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—According to Dr. Thaddeus L. Bolton, professor of psychology at Temple university, the theory that kissing shortens life is all wrong. He believes the contrary that kissing lengthens life. According to his theory it keeps the heart on its toes. Dr. Bolton knows of only one man who ever died from too much kissing. That case was in Germany, and the man died from exhaustion. The gentleman did not lack moral courage, the doctor says.

Your Smile and Your Teeth

Anna Q. Nilsson

Don't Believe Your Teeth are "Naturally" Off Color

DENTAL science has found a new way to lighten cloudy teeth. A way, thus, that often changes a person's whole appearance. Your teeth, it's been learned, are not naturally off color—simply coated with a film that absorbs discolorations from food, smoking, etc.

You can feel that film now with your tongue; a slippery sort of coating. It is there largely because your present dentifrice is failing in its duty. Ordinary dentifrices don't fight film successfully.

Now a new-type dentifrice has been discovered. A film-removing paste called Pepsodent. Famous $100,000 stars of the movies use it before going on a scene. That's why movie smiles are so gleaming white.

Leading dentists urge it because it protects the teeth and firms the gums. Film breeds bacteria that invite tooth troubles and pyorrhea. It imperils your teeth, your gums; and makes your smile unattractive.

Clear it off. See the amazing difference made. Get Pepsodent at any drug store. Or send the coupon for test tube free.

Over 36,000,000 Trees Are Planted In Pennsylvania

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—Compilations made public today by the State Department of Forests and Waters showed that since 1899 until the close of 1926 that a total of 36,254,284 trees of various species were planted on Pennsylvania forest reservations.

More than 50 per cent of the planting was done during the Brumbaugh administration when 19,436,936 trees were set out. During the Sproul administration, during a part of which time Former Gocernor Pinchot served as forestry commissioner, there were 2,682,026 trees planted. Trees planted during the Pinchot administration totalled 1,898,467.

Records revealed that of the total plantings white pine led with 21,417,427. Only 5 per cent of all the trees planted were hardwood variety.

Governor Fisher Has Namesake

(International News Service)

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Feb. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Kehler, of Shamokin, goes the honor of naming the first child for Gov. John S. Fisher, that is, naming a child after the Indiana, Pa., lawyer since he became chief executive of Pennsylvania.

Young John S. Fisher is the first reported in the above mentioned category at least.

The Kehlers in announcing the arrival of the offspring took pride in making known that his name would be "John S." The Fisher part of the governor's name was not considered nor was it made clear whether the "S" would stand for "Samuel", the father's name, or "Stuchell", the middle part of the governor's name.

WHAT'S THE LIMIT?

WINNIPEG, Canada, Feb. 2.—The latest aspirant to the world's coffee drinking championship is Harry J. Smet, Winnipeg barber, who swallowed 86 cups of the beverage in less than six hours, topping it off with a bottle of beer. This eclipses the record set by Gus Comstock, of Fergus Falls, Minn., by one cup.

Bringing Back Ancient Players Is New Baseball Fad For 1927

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor Internat'al News Service

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Face lifting soon will be the vogue among major league ball players if they don't stop digging up the dinosaurs faster than fresh specimens can be decently buried. A year or so ago John McGraw, being in immediate need of rising young men, signed Grover Hartley. The latter had only been out of the league about 10 years, which automatically made him an excellent prospect according to present day ideas.

But Grover failed to make the riffle and midway through the 1926 season McGraw sent him hence. Maybe it was for further seasoning. Anyhow, this somewhat elderly gent will be back this season as a catcher with the Boston Braves.

So much for Hartley. Exhibit B, is none other than Steve O'Neill, eased out of Cleveland as passe some years ago. The Red Sox entertained similar ideas about Stephen and passed him on to the Yankees without visible regret. The Yanks likewise managed to bear up bravely when, early in 1925, they felt the time had come for Steve to turn up absent.

Back With Browns

So he departed to the outer darkness of the minor leagues and baseball made ready to forget him with all due haste. The young man had been a recruit with the old Athletics as many as 15 years before. Yet in 1927 we find him coming back as first string catcher with the St. Louis Browns.

Babe Adams' return to the big time to pitch full good seasons of ball for the Pittsburgh Pirates originally served to prove to baseball men that Mark Twain's first "death" was not the only one that had been greatly exaggerated. Anyhow, they have been bringing back the old-timers for another look ever since.

Some of this season's "reclamations" are not particularly old, at that. But everybody seemed satisfied to see them go the last time they were on the big circuits, at which time the assumption was general that they simply wouldn't do at all. There is, for example, Lew Fonseca, who put in some years with the Reds and Phillies. The latter sent him to Newark without a passing qualm, but now the Indians are congratulating themselves on having outbid several other big league clubs who were hot after him.

Charley Robertson, who shut the Tigers out without a hit some years ago and then pulled a graceful flop with the White Sox and Browns, is another welcome comeback. He will get a trial and plenty of it with the Braves. Then there is Mike Cvengres, who first came up with the Giants.

Right Down Again

Mike went right down again, but later the Athletics and White Sox dallied with him for some seasons before giving him up as a bad buy. The 1927 Pirates apparently don't think so, however.

Ike Boone, up with the Giants and Red Sox, will be back for a whirl with the White Sox. So will Bert Cole, who pitched some seasons with indifferent success in Detroit. Hub Pruitt, the lad who once high-hatted Ruth with a slow curve, is to get another trial, this time with the Phillies.

An ex-member of that club, De Witt Lebourveau, is coming to the Giants with an American Association record that has won him a regular position before a ball is thrown. Lance Richberg, ex-Giant, has been picked up by the Braves and Harvey Hendrick, who wouldn't do with the Yanks and Indians, is being talked right into the Brooklyn outfield.

These merely furnish a few offhand cases. Modern baseball is full of them.

The tramp paused outside the gate.

"Clear out!" shouted the lady of the house. "I ain't got no wood to chop. There ain't nothing you could do here."

"But, madam, there is" retorted the wayfarer, with dignity. "I could give you a few lessons in grammar."

Perhaps they keep making new laws because the old ones are broken.

Senate Approves Fund For Cruisers

Overrides Objections Of President In Voting For Appropriation

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The administration's economy program suffered a defeat Tuesday when the Senate overrode presidential objections and authorized a $1,200,000 appropriation for the immediate construction of three new cruisers for the navy.

The Senate's action, taken on pleas that the cruisers were necessary to maintain the navy upon a 5-5-3 ratio with Great Britain and Japan, throws the subject into conference, as the House previously refused to set aside funds for the new ships.

The appropriation was a part of a $14,950,000 fund authorized for new construction in the naval appropriation bill.

Quell Revolts Of Mexicans

(International News Service)
MEXICO CITY, Feb. 2.—The Mexican government today considers the various rebellions against the Calles administration as completely smothered.

As a result the War Department has issued a ten-day general amnesty extending to February 10, during which time all those in rebellion against the government are asked to come in and surrender. All rebels who have not surrendered before the expiration of the amnesty period will be declared outlaws and will be executed upon capture, according to Assistant Secretary of War Pina.

Blind Evangelist At Dewey Avenue Methodist Church

Rev. M. W. Bundy, blind evangelist and singer from Forest County has begun a three weeks evangelistic campaign in the Dewey avenue Free Methodist church.

Rev. Bundy is an eloquent and forceful preacher and is gifted with a splendid voice. His solo singing at every service is an added inspiration to the meeting. At the first service he gave the definition of a revival as being "the cooperation of human instrumentalities and divine power".

Rev. Bundy gave six great hindrances which holds back a revival. They are self efficiency, indifference, unbelief failing to obey the spirit promptly, unforgiving spirit and rejection of light.

Meetings begin every evening at 7:30.

Kitts Is Elected Erie Senator

(International News Service)
ERIE, Pa., Feb. 2.—Miles B. Kitts, former mayor of Erie, was elected to the state Senate yesterday in a special election over Laverne H. Raymond. Kitts succeeds Marvin E. Griswold, who died suddenly early in January. The issue was clearly a wet and dry one in the district, for the city went to Kitts by about 3,000 votes, with Raymond having an edge of about 2,100 in the rural districts. Kitts will hold office until January 1, 1928, though his period of actual service will end when the present session of the Senate comes to a close in April.

Romance Shattered Child Wife Sent Back To Father

(International News Service)
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Feb. 2.—Her romance shattered by a stern parent after an elopment and a week of wedded bliss, Mrs. Mary McNeely, 14-year-old bride, was back at her father's home today while her husband who she saved from a possible prison term was back at his chores on a neighboring farm.

Virgie McNeely, farmer boy, was arrested here a few days ago on a charge of kidnapping on a warrant sworn out for him by the girl's father.

But Mary came into court and testified Virgie was a good husband and not a cave-man kidnapper and she married him because she loved him. The youth was dismissed.

The court ruled, however, that Mary being under age must return to her father. McNeely also returned to the home of his parents.

"Just wait until I am old enough," Mary said as she left the courtroom when the marriage was set aside by the court.

Attains Success Without a Struggle

Beatrix Thompson, imported from London, and who has achieved great success on Broadway in "The Constant Nymph," says she has had no struggle to reach the top. Only 22 and on the stage a mere four years, she was "discovered" by Basil Dean, producer, when he saw her at an acting school in London.

Gov. McLean Is Latest Democrat Among Presidential Possibilities

North Carolina Executive, Favorite Son Of "Old North State", Put Forward For 1928 Nomination—Already Some Talk Of Compromising, However, On Second Place On National Ticket—Boomlets Springing Up Plentifully

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Presidential boomlets are springing up rather plentiful in Washington these days as the Sixty-ninth Congress wrangles noisily to a close.

Most of them are Democratic, due perhaps to the increasing evidence that the Democrats have done little, if anything, to heal the wounds of Madison Square Garden, and which leads to the belief that another compromise must be found between the Smith and McAdoo forces.

The candidacy of Senator Jim Reed of Missouri, is no longer doubted by his colleagues. His friends regard him as ideally situated for the lightning bolt to fall on his shoulder. He is Protestant, wet and from the Middle West. His wetness commends him to the Eastern and Northern Democracy, while his Protestantism and geography would appeal to the anti-Smith forces.

The Latest Boom

The latest boom to reach the capital concerns Gov. Angus W. McLean of North Carolina. It has had a modest beginning in the talk of his friends about his qualities, and his availability, but it is probable more will be heard of it before the embattled hosts of Democracy gather in 1928. He will be put forward, it is said, as the favorite son of the "Old North State" and supported to the proverbial last ditch.

His friends talk of first place on the ticket, but it is said they would not be averse to second place. Some Southerners here say that irrespective of who is nominated, the south is going to insist upon one vast economic progress in the place on the ticket. It has been eons since the Solid South was represented on the national ticket, and there is a growing number of southerners who believe that the south in recent years, as well as the democratic solidarity of the section through lean and fat years, entitles the south to some recognition.

The North Carolina Governor is 57 years old. He has been actively identified with party affairs since he attended his first Democratic convention, as a delegate in 1904. He has had wide experience in administrative and executive matters.

A lawyer by profession, he branched out into banking and manufacturing, and has been identified with those industries for many years.

On National Committee

He was active in both Wilson campaigns, and for eight years, from 1916 to 1924, was a member of the Democratic National Committee. He served as a member of the War Finance Corporation in 1918-20, and as its managing director for the two years thereafter. He also found time to be an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in the later days of the Wilson administration, so Washington is not new to him.

As a candidate for the Governorship of North Carolina in 1925, he received the largest majority ever given to a candidate in the state—a fact which his friends point to as proof of his vote-getting propensities.

His administration at Raleigh has been marked by North Corolina's embarkment upon probably the most ambitious road-betterment program any state ever attempted, and by the encouragement to northern industry to settle in the state, close to the source of tobacco and cotton. His friends say for him that he epitomizes the "spirit of the New South" that is going in for manufacturing, crop diversification, good roads, and public improvement all down the line.

It may be that nothing will come of the boomlet launched for Angus W. McLean. Yet the Democrats have a traditional penchant for seeking their Presidential timber from among the party's successful Governors. Nothing may come of it, and again something might. Stranger things have happened in the merry whirl of politics.

Says "Allenrhu" Greatest Rheumatic Medicine In the World

Hundreds of Bottles Being Sold, Declares McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., Who Guarantees It and Is Dispensing It to Many Sufferers Here.

It does not matter whether you are disabled with cursed Rheumatism or have only occasional twinges "Allenrhu," will ease the agony, do away with the gnawing pains and often reduce the swollen joints.

Allenrhu is no laggard. It starts right in at once searching out the poisonous deposits and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that often cause Rheumatism, out of the body thru the natural channels.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years and really marvelous results have been accomplished, often in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the sufferer was almost helpless.

"The blessed relief this marvelous preparation quickly gives has made for it thousands of friends," says McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc.

Revoke License Of Woman Driver

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—Esther Hart, of South Greensburg, the first woman ever to lose an automobile drivers' license in Pennsylvania for larceny, had her license revoked during the past week, the State Department of Highways announced today.

During the week licenses of thirty-eight persons were revoked and nine names were added to the official blacklist, according to the department.

Twenty of the revocations and all but one of the blacklistings were caused by intoxication. There were ten revocations for larceny.

Revocations for intoxication included John F. Kline, of Bethlehem, and Joseph W. Mehaffey, of McKeesport.

Additional activity against the Pittsburgh gang of automobile thieves was reflected in the revocations. Those from that city losing licenses on larceny charges were Steve Malechi, Michael Nasladka, Ray Wagner, Adam Malechi, Herbert Bartou, Victor Buzyne, Joseph Pusateri, Frank Crivella and John Lavelle.

The South might improve the situation by making all mortgage blanks and similar papers of cotton.

Zoning Board Issues Permits

Two Of Permits Are For Enclosing Of Front Porches

All appeals ot the board of zoning appeals from the decision of the city engineer in refusing building permits to certain additions to and remodeling of buildings in different sections of the city, heard on Tuesday afternoon at a short session of the board, were granted and the permits ordered issued.

The members of the board in attendance at this session were Mathew Gunton, chairman; and Attorney Frank A. Hover. Mrs. Florence Pearson the third member of the board being absent from the city on an extended tour.

The first case heard was that of Rocco Paglia, 9-9 1-2 East Home street, who was refused permission to construct a concrete block addition in front of his two family dwelling for use as a store room. There were no objections filed with the board by adjacent property owners and it had also been found on investigation that less than 50 percent of the properties in the same block had ten feet of front yard. The board granted his appeal for a permit to construct the store room addition to the property line and directed the city engineer to grant it. Under the regulations of the zoning ordinance applying to this district if 80 per cent of the properties in the same block and on the same side of the street had had ten feet of front yard it would have been only possible to grant a permit to construct this addition to a point within ten feet of the sidewalk.

The appeal of John P. Rodgers, 802 Wilmington avenue for permission to enclose his front porch with glass was granted. There were no objections filed with the Board and there was presented to the board a paper signed by adjacent home owners stating they had no objection.

William G. Armor, 606 Sumner avenue was also successful in his appeal for the privilege of enclosing his front porch in glass. There were no objecters and he also presented a paper signed by adjacent property owners stating that they had no objection to the Armor porch being enclosed.

Discuss Finances For Legion Home

Board of directors at their regular monthly meeting held last night at the Legion Home discussed the financing the Home for the year 1928.

It has been the custom to secure the funds for the financing of the Home by the sale of poppies on Armistice Day, and some discussion was held as to whether this custom should be continued this next fall or the finances raised in some other way.

End ALL Dandruff in 5 Minutes!

Yes, you can dissolve every particle of dandruff in a few moments' time—with Danderine. Leaving your scalp as pink and white and clean as any child's.

So many hair and scalp disorders yield to the first few drops of Danderine! Thousands use it to prevent hair falling out. Fully a million owe the silky softness of their hair to its gentle invigoration. Any permanent wave or water wave lasts much longer and looks much nicer when Danderine is used instead of water to "set" the wave. BESSEMER CO. REORGANIZED

Beeghly Is President Under New Charter—Directors Are Chosen

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 2.—The permanent organization of the Bessemer Limestone and Cement Co., newly organized under a Delaware charter, has been announced as follows: L. A. Beeghly, president; W. E. Bliss, vice president; Charles Schmutz, vice president and sales manager; W. H. Kilcawley, secretary, and George C. Treat, treasurer.

Directors are: R. C. Speese, Philip Wick, E. E. Swartswelter, L. A. Beeghly, W. E. Bliss, Charles Schmutz and W. H. Kilcawley of Youngstown; H. N. Snyder of Buffalo, N. Y.; W. G. Scheub, Toledo, and Richard Inglis of Cleveland.

The financial plans of the company will be completed at the end of this week and it is likely that a $2,500,000 bond issue will be offered, together with A and B common stock.

Most of the men elected are connected with the Standard Slag Co., of which Beeghly is president and Bliss vice president. Of the old Bessemer organization Schmutz retains his title and office, while George Treat, secretary of the old firm, is made treasurer of the new company.

Incidentally, Mr. Snyder is a brother-in-law of Mr. Beeghly and at the head of the Buffalo Slag Co. and the Federal Cement Co. of Buffalo. Scheub represents large stone interests of Toledo, while Mr. Inglis is a member of the local firm of Otis & Co. in Cleveland.

New offices of the company will soon be established in the City Bank building, adjoining the offices of the Standard Slag Co.

Evangelist Johnson Speaks On Signs Of Christ's Coming

Evangelist Edgar E. Johnson, speaking at the Alliance Missionary convention, gave a stirring message on the "Signs of the Times" at the Tuesday night meeting.

The sermon was largely the testimony of the Scriptures as to the fact of His return as set forth therein. The manner of the coming was declared to be personal and visible, according to the witnesses in the Scriptures. Mr. Johnson does not set dates or time as to the return of the Lord, but does declare that so many signs pointing in the same direction indicate that the time is near at hand.

"Perilous times", declared St. Paul, "would mark the last days, and they are to be seen in the moral, spiritual and political upheavals of our day. All of these signs warn the believed to "be ready" and are also a warning to the sinner to get right with God before it is too late.

The meeting closed with a prayer service in which a lot of men gathered about the altar for prayer. The convention closes tonight with a missionary address by Miss Elsie B. Clor of Jerusalem, followed by the closing address by Evangelist Johnson.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINT.

February 14 is St. Valentine's day as all the young folk know. It helps the hostess in her scheme of decoration if she is entertaining her club near that date. Red paper hearts are a cheap, effective and easily obtained form of decoration and heart shaped delicacies are not too hard for the average hostess to achieve. Below are two menus suitable for the Valentine bridge luncheon.

Menu No. 1.
Creamed Chicken in Heart-Shaped Timbales
Beet Salad
(Beets cut in heart shapes and served on lettuce)
Rolls Coffee
Ice Cream in Heart Molds
Small Orange Cakes iced in pink with candy flowers

Menu No. 2.
Tuna Fish, a la King
Pineapple and Cheese Salad with Cherry Garnish
Salted Wafers Coffee
Raspberry Gelatin with Whipped Cream and Cherries
Cup Cakes, frosted in pink with flowers outlined

TODAY'S RECIPES

Tuna Fish a la King—One small can tuna fish, two tablespoons butter, two tablespoons flour or cornstarch, two cups whole milk, one-half teaspoon salt, one-fourth cup canned pimentoes cut in pieces, yolk one egg. Melt butter, add cornstarch and stir until well blended, then pour on milk gradually, stirring constantly. Bring to boiling point, add salt and pimentoes, and tuna fish, flaked. Again bring to boiling point, add slightly beaten egg yolk, stir until thick and pour into buttered baking dish, cover with bread crumbs and bake ten or fifteen minutes.

Pineapple and Cheese Salad—Sliced pineapple may be cut into heart shape if you wish, or may be left whole. Place on bed of crisp lettuce. Fill the cavity with cream cheese or place balls of cream on top of pineapple, add a mound of mayonnaise in center and top with cherry.

SUGGESTIONS
Food For Invalids

Where is the invalid or convalescent who would not prefer a dish of fluffy riced potatoes to one where potatoes are merely mashed? The same principal would apply to almost any food served. The convalescent who falls away from milk may usually be coaxed to drink it if it has been made in the form of junket and decorated with colorful fruits and so on all along the list of foods.

In preparing desserts for sick people ice cream and water ices are a good standby. Oranges and lemon ice are always favorites, but remember that the juice from canned stewed fruits—grape, loganberry, cherry, plum and in fact any highly flavored fruit will make a delicious sherbet or ice. These more decided flavors are not necessary for the rich creams, although such a combination is perfectly suitable.

Fresh Fish

Cook the fish the day you buy it. It may spoil if kept and even if it does not the fresh flavor will be impaired.

Doc Crandall and Art Griggs, two veterans of the major leagues who recently have been performing on the Pacific coast circuit are said to be eyeing the Wichita franchise of the Western league which Frank Isbell will let go if he gets his price.

Postpone Meeting Of Committee

Browning And "Peaches" Going Into Seclusion To Await Judge's Decision

Famous Case Ends Tuesday And Principals Retire From Public Eye

Judge Will Study Documents And Testimony; May Take Month For Ruling

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—"Daddy" and "Peaches" today retired to their respective apartments to rest and recover, if possible, from the charges and counter-charges which they hurled at each other during their trial for separation in White Plains.

The honking goose and the rubber eggs have had their day in court, and now the attorneys for Edward West Browning and his young wife, the former Frances Heenan, are engaged in preparing briefs which they will submit to Justice Seeger within two weeks.

To Study Documents

The judge will then study these documents, the testimony given during the trial, which was the most popular entertainment staged in Westchester county in years, and eventually, in perhaps a month, he will render his decision.

Not until then will "Daddy" know how large a slice of his millions will go to the youthful "Peaches," if any; nor will she know whether she and "Ma" Heenan can continue to live in comfort, or whether they must go back to their former roles of shop girl and nurse, respectively.

The only tangible result of the performance so far is considerable wear and tear suffered by the White Plains court house at the hands of the mob which witnessed the trial, and a strong movement to have such litigation held in private in the future.

Justice Seeger himself announced that if ever again such a case comes before him, he will bar the public from the court, and also the press.

"I believe that before another year is passed a statute will stand on the books making secrecy in such a case mandatory," he said.

Kay Laurel Is Dead In London

The death of Kay Laurel, aged 37, actress, artist's model and film star and daughter of Mrs. A. A. Leslie of North East, Pa., is of more than passing interest here.

And the reason for this is that Kay Laurel as she was known in the professional world in which she starred was once a little girl a resident of Lawrence county, this being the district in which she was born.

While it is many years since she was a resident of Lawrence county and most people have forgotten her, there are still those who remember her and there are also a number of relatives residing in this city.

Her mother is seriously ill at the present time and has not been advised of the death of her daughter which occurred in London as a result of pneumonia. She was interested in a dramatic studio in London at the time of her death. Her family name was Ruth Leslie.

B. & O. Planning For Celebration

Hundredth Anniversary To Be Observed Here On February 28

On February 28 the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will celebrate its 10th anniversary as a transportation system. The anniversary will be observed all over the system and New Castle employes are planning to have their own local end of the celebration.

A meeting will be held next Monday evening for the purpose of making definite plans for the local end of the celebration. While it has not been definitely decided as to what the celebration here will be present indications are that it will be in the form of an entertainment and dance for the local employes and their families as well as employes of the division who may be here at the time.

It is expected that the local celebration will be held on the evening of February 28 in the K. of P. hall the entertainment to be provided will be in keeping with the occasion being observed.

United States Pleases China Again In Statement Of Policy

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
Exclusive Central Press Dispatch To New Castle News

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Europe has studied the Chinese problem for centuries. The United States tackled it only the other day. Yet Europe admittedly is as far from having solved it as ever. The United States seems to read the answer like a book.

Latin American republics consider the United States dangerously big and powerful to be so near by.

It suits old world diplomacy's book that the United States should be the least liked, by the other republics of the new one, of all the powers on earth.

It's a fact and it helps old world trade.

The old world's representatives on the Potomac don't talk about it for publication, naturally, but they know it and are glad of it, too.

What stumps them, however, is to make out why Washington so persistently rubs Latin America's fur the wrong way. They'd set it down to pure Yankee tactlessness. Only, if the Yankee's congenitally so crass, how does it happen that he's so popular with the Chinese?

He is.

All accounts agree that the Chinese anti-foreign agitator makes an exception in favor of Americans.

That is, he does if he knows enough to tell Americans and other "foreign devils" apart. The average coolie doesn't, but as soon as he gets education enough to sort foreigners out, he's "anti" to most of them, but pro-American.

Of late he's been inclined to include Russians and Germans in the classification he considers friendly. That's because they've been nice to him since the war. But he looked on Americans as his friends long, long before that, and does yet.

It isn't that the individual American in China is any more considerate than the average Englishman or Frenchman or anybody else. He's just as apt to be overbearing as the next man.

It's Washington's friendly general policy that the Chinese seem to recognize, which is funny, considering how intangible a governmental policy is.

All the same, it's there. It's as noticeable under Secretary of State Kellogg, who's as rough as a nutmeg grater with Mexico, as it was under Secretary of State John Hay, China's traditional American standby.

If we land marines in Nicaragua, it's imperialistic. If we land 'em in China, it's well meant. That's the way the Nicaraguans interpret it—and the Chinese.

Votes At Every Election Since First Ballot, 1862

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—If all of William H. Hawk's ballots had been cast in a single election they would total more than the entire vote polled last November in some Columbia county election districts. His first ballot was cast in 1862, and since that time he has not missed an opportunity to vote, either in a general election or a primary.

A resident of Main township, he sometimes was compelled to return home from Sunbury to vote, but always made the trip. All of his ballots for 64 years have been cast in Main or Beaver townships.

"Until the last few years", he said, "someone always came around on election day to haul me to the polls, but for several years I have had a mile or two to walk each way. In spite of rain on some election days, I have always gone to the polls."

Despite his 85 years Mr. Hawk remains active, and this winter is engaged in lumbering on a tract which he owns in Main township. For many years he has conducted a mill near Mainville.

Building Prospects Are Good Locally

E. S. Stevenson city plumbing inspector, foresees considerable building and activity for New Castle workmen this spring.

He pointed out that a new bank building, a hospital and a city fire house will be built here and new college buildings at New Wilmington.

There are several large remodeling jobs planned and residences are being built in many local thoroughfares.

To Speak Of Girl Scout Work At Public Library

Splendid progress is being made by Miss Adelaide Werner, regional director of the National Girl Scouts, incorporated, who is conducting training classes for Scout leaders and council members in New Castle this week.

The second meeting at the Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening was well attended and further instructions were given along the line of leaders requirements. Miss Werner is stressing the importance of competent leadership in all troops, and is well pleased with the co-operation she is receiving from local citizens.

This evening there will be a meeting at the Public Library at eight o'clock in the children's department for anyone interested in Girl Scout work.

The training classes will take place Thursday and Friday afternoon from four until six o'clock.

Saturday afternoon at two o'clock all Girl Scouts of this city will gather in the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. and put on a model Girl Scout program, which will be open to the public. It is hoped that this particular feature of the week's program will be well attended in order that everyone may learn of the work that has already been accomplished.

Press Men Accorded Honors At Capital

Newspaper Men Are Named For Important Posts In State

(From News Bureau (State Capital)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—Like every other profession or business, the newspaper profession has a certain caste. Not so pronounced perhaps as others, but present nevertheless. A cub reporter feels the same towards a seasoned veteran perhaps as does the cub lawyer towards the grizzled campaigner who represents some national corporation.

The assignment most envied in the newspaper world is probably that of Washington correspondent for a metropolitan daily, and next to that one of the best assignments is that of "Capitol Hill" correspondent for a Pennsylvania daily. For here in the capital of the Keystone State, the correspondents who represent their papers are treated with every consideration.

Twenty five correspondents are here for the 1927 session, some of them for wire service such as the International News Service, which serves the New Castle News, others for dailies in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, Scranton and Lancaster. Together the twenty five men write copy which at some time or other is read by every person in Pennsylvania capable of reading the English language.

To give the newspaper men the proper working space, the State of Pennsylvania has two large rooms on E floor in the center of the Capitol, and here the state has provided typewriters for the men who interpret and chronicle the events of the legislature. The custodian of the room is a newspaper man who is on the payroll of the state.

In the House of Representatives the press gallery is located down below the Speaker's rostrum, while in the Senate the press gallery is at the back of the hall. In the House it would be inadvisable to have the gallery in such a spot because of the size of the room.

Newspaper Men Appointed

This session, newspaper men are very much in evidence, not alone as correspondents but as officials. Governor John S. Fisher saw fit to appoint as his private and executive secretaries, two newspaper men, A. Boyd Hamilton and Howard Rigby.

Mr. Hamilton is a veteran of Capitol Hill. For many years he was the dean of the scribes on the Hill and has covered the sessions here under many governors. Because of his wide experience Governor Fisher made him his private secretary, which means that before anybody can get to the governor, he must first see Mr. Hamilton, and many matters that one thinks are for the governor are passed on by Mr. Hamilton. Not a bad job when you consider that it pays $7,500.00 per year. But to quote Mr. Hamilton, "they sure handed me a real job of work."

The executive secretary, Howard Rigby is a former Pittsburgh newspaper man, and he is in charge of the governor's staff, also highly important job. Mr. Rigby may be remembered by New Castle people as the courteous young man who handled the details of the trip made by Governor Fisher when he was a candidate.

Others Named

But recognition to the newspaper profession does not end there. Charles E. Dorworth who was appointed Secretary of Forests and Waters, is a Bellefonte man who was on the staff of a Philadelphia newspaper.

Frank A. Gorman, Deputy Secretary of Banking, just appointed, was also a Philadelphia newspaper man, and he takes the place of a newspaper man who was in the Pinchot cabinet, Einor Barford, who held the job now occupied by Gorman, and was later made Insurance Commissioner. As a newspaper man Mr. Barford uncovered a number of stock swindles.

Governor Pinchot also seemed to have a leaning towards the Fourth Estate for he appointed several. Billy Rocap who for a time was head of the Moxing Commission is a Philadelphia newspaper man as is Harvey J. Boyle of Pittsburgh, a newspaper man and still a member of the board.

Richard J. Beanish a member of the Public Service Commission for a time was a Philadelphia newspaper man and spoke in New Castle during the Pinchot campaign. Walter Darlington who was in the Welfare Department was on the old Philadelphia North American.

When a bill is presented to the General Assembly there must be a carbon copy for the press gallery for the political leaders of Pennsylvania are convinced that the best thing to do it to give the newspaper men the bill when it originates. They'll get it anyway.

The correspondents here have an organization which is known as the Correspondents League. Not so well known as the Gridiron Club of Washington but still quite a distinction to be a member. At the election held a few days ago; John M. Cummings, who represents the Philadelphia Inquirer, was elected president.

The "dean" at the present time is George J. Brennan of the Philadelphia Inquirer who has been writing political news from Harrisburg since Senator Matthews Stanley Quay was a force in this state. Brennan was a friend of his, of Senator Penrose and has known intimately, all of the men who have come and gone here, and who in their day made their mark in Pennsylvania politics.

After the "Flu" is over —you need a Tonic

Help Is Needed To Restore Your Wasted Strength And Energy.

"Flu" leaves the body weakened and run down. In such cases a tonic is clearly indicated. Restore the appetite and rid yourself of that let-down feeling.

"Flu" is a very enervating disease. It leaves its victims so weak and debilitated that there is as much danger from the after-effects as from the diease itself. In other words, after an attack of the "flu" you need a selective tonic to rebuild the system so that you may have your old-time strength and energy restored.

S.S.S. is unequalled for restoring strength and vitality.

You owe it to yourself and family to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build up red blood corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished. It is time-tried and reliable. S.S.S. is made from the roots of fresh herbs and plants, and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory.

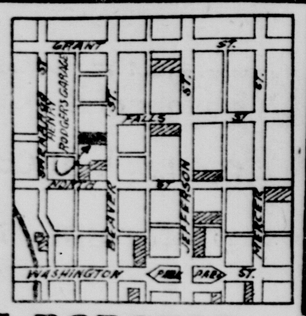

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

WOULD ABOLISH FEE SYSTEM IN TAX COLLECTING

County Treasurer Would Be Collector Of All Taxes In County

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2. — One of the major recommendations of the state tax commission, that of abolishing the fee system for collectors, would be made a state statute under a bill introduced in the senate Monday by Senator Horace W. Schantz, Lehigh.

The Schantz Bill has the backing not only of the commission but also of the Pennsylvania league of women voters which has been fighting the present costly system of tax collection for a number of years.

The bill would make the county treasurer the tax collector in each county, except Philadelphia, and would entirely abolish the fee system for paying collectors. Second and third class cities would have the option of accepting the provisions of the new law or continuing their present system.

The proposed law provides for a single bill covering all taxes. Its sponsors estimate that it would save the taxpayers from three to five million dollars now paid to the 2,500 individual tax collectors.

At the end of the present term of the collectors, under the bill, would be succeeded by the 66 salaried county tax collectors who would be the then serving county treasurers.

Each county treasurer would receive in addition to his regular salary extra compensation for that work varying from $500 to $5,000. The tax collection salary is based on the classification of the various counties.

Winter Months are Danger Months!

The Time of Year Good Physical Condition Counts Most

STATISTICS show February and March are the months of greatest sickness. Winter's colds, chills and sudden changes, indoor life and lack of fresh air and exercise, place heavier burdens on our eliminative organs. Too often sluggishness of function results.

It is the duty of the kidneys to keep the blood stream free from the poisons of bodily waste. Retention of this toxic waste is apt to make one listless, tired and achy. A dull, toxic backache is often a symptom, with drowsy headaches and dizziness. That the kidneys are not functioning properly is often shown by scanty or burning passage of secretions.

If you have reason to believe your kidneys are acting sluggishly, assist them with a tested diuretic*. Millions have used Doan's Pills. They are endorsed the country over. Ask your neighbor!

*Diuretics are agents which increase the secretion of the kidneys—Encyclopaedia definition.

School Survey Will Be Started

Vocational Education Survey Is Planned For New Castle

SUPT. GREEN NAMES COMMITTEE MEMBERS

In order to find out the particular needs of vocational education in New Castle, the Board of Education of New Castle has arranged for a thorough survey to be made under the direction of Dr. L. H. Dennis, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of Pennsylvania.

In making this survey of Vocational Education he will have the assistance and co-operation of several other members of the Department of Education from Harrisburg and representatives from the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Institute of Technology as well as 8 local representatives on the committee and 18 members of advisory committees.

In planning the future policy of so important a subject as Vocational Education the Board of Education believes that school procedure should be based upon reason rather than sentiment, and as there is no disposition on the part of the Board of School Directors or the Superintendent of Schools to be arbitrary or to follow any hobbies of their own, arrangements have been made upon the recommendation of Dr. C. C. Green for this important survey to be made by a competent and representative committee.

This survey will begin on Wednesday afternoon when Dr. Dennis will meet with a special committee of the School Board at 4:30, then at 5:00 Dr. Dennis and his colleagues from Harrisburg will meet with the entire school board where plans will be presented.

Then on Thursday, Friday and Saturday a thorough survey of the schools and community of New Castle including the industries of the city and vicinity will be made and a report will finally be made to the Board of Education which will have practical value to that body in determining future policies.

In 1922, the School Directors of the City of New Castle, inaugurated a program of Vocational Education in this city. The present board of School Directors desires to continue Vocational Education along the most approved lines and in harmony with the best educational thought of the day.

Vocational Education is a broad term, and includes much more than the so-called "Shop Activities" now being carried on in one of the junior high schools of the city. It includes all types of education which, directly and specifically, are designed to prepare boys and girls for their occupations in life. The field of Home Economics, training for Commercial Service, Industrial Education, Trade courses, all have a place in any comprehensive program of vocational training.

Therefor upon the recommendation of Dr. C. C. Green, Superintendent of Schools, the present board of School Directors, have deemed it proper at this time to have a careful survey of the vocational activities now being carried on in the school district, as well as the possibilities for developing that type of education in New Castle.

An advisory Committee of the Board of Education, consisting of James K. Love, Mrs. Rose Nothdurft, John A. Butler, and Dr. C. C. Green, Superintendent of Schools will co-operate with Dr. Dennis in directing the work. Certain Advisory Committees, representing the Instructional corps of the New Castle schools and the community at large, have also been appointed. The personnel of these committees is as follows:

Advisory Committee—Home Economics
Mrs. Howard Kirk
Mrs. Charles Greer
Mrs. A. L. Thayer
Mrs. W. W. Sniff
Mrs. Roy Long
Mrs. O. P. Brown
Mrs. John Offutt
Mrs. Carl Wilson

Advisory Committee—Industrial Education
James M. Smith
P. J. Flaherty
Robert J. Tully

Advisory Committee—Commercial Education
Robert M. White

Evangelist And Singer At First Nazarene Church

Rev. Bona Fleming And Rev. Ralph D. Schurman To Assist In Revival Services

REV. R. D. SCHURMAN

REV. BONA FLEMING

The First Church of the Nazarene, corner W. Falls and N. Beaver street, is to enter into their special mid-winter revival services beginning Thursday evening of this week, February 3 and continuing through Sunday, the 13th.

Rev. Bona Fleming, of Ashland, Kentucky is to be the special evangelist. Rev. Fleming is one of the best known and one of the most successful preachers in the Holiness movement. He was engaged in a meeting in this city once before and is well known here.

Rev. Ralph D. Schurman of California, Pa., and formerly of New England, is the engaged song leader and soloist. Mr. Schurman attended Gordan Bible College of Boston, Mass. and is a graduate of Eastern Nazarene College. He will have charge of all the music.

There will be special music and singing and orchestral selections at every service. The meetings will continue each evening at 7:30. Sundays, 10:45 a. m. 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

Nearly 350 New Students Enter Senior High School

Five Portables And All Rooms In Building Are Now Crowded

The office girls of the Senior High school are having a busy time this week trying to arrange the schedules of the students attending school there. With the 340 new pupils coming up at the half year term, and many of those who are having regular half year promotions wanting shanges on their program card, there is plenty of work to be done throughout the day.

Of these 340 new students, 285 came from the Benjamin Franklin Junior High school, 36 from the North Street Junior High and the remainig 29 from the Mahoning school. F. L. Orth, principal of the school, stated today that some 12 students who had at one time quit school, have come back to their studies after finding that it paid to have an education when one needed to make a living.

Mr. Orth also said that without the portables which have been constructed on the school property, it would be impossible to take care of the number attending. There are five of these portables, each seating 45. They will take care of 225. It would have been impossible to crowd all these into the main building class rooms during all periods.

The school should be running in its regular course by the last of the week, with every student having a set program for the day.

Careless Washing Spoils the Hair

The simple hair styles of to-day make beautiful hair a necessity.

Luckily, beautiful hair is now easily obtained. It is simply a matter of shampooing.

Proper shampooing makes the hair soft and silky. It brings out all the real life and lustre, all the natural wave and color, and leaves it fresh looking, glossy and bright.

While your hair must have frequent and regular washing to keep it beautiful, it cannot stand the harsh effect of ordinary soaps. The free alkali in ordinary soaps soon dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

That is why discriminating women, everywhere, now use Mulsified Cocoanut Oil Shampoo. This clear, pure and entirely greaseless product brings out all the real beauty of the hair and cannot possibly injure.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather which cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

It leaves the hair soft and easy to manage and makes it fairly sparkle with new life, gloss and lustre.

You can get Mulsified Cocoanut Oil Shampoo at any drug store.

Your Sick Child is Constipated! Look at Tongue

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels

Give "California Fig Syrup" if cross, bilious or feverish

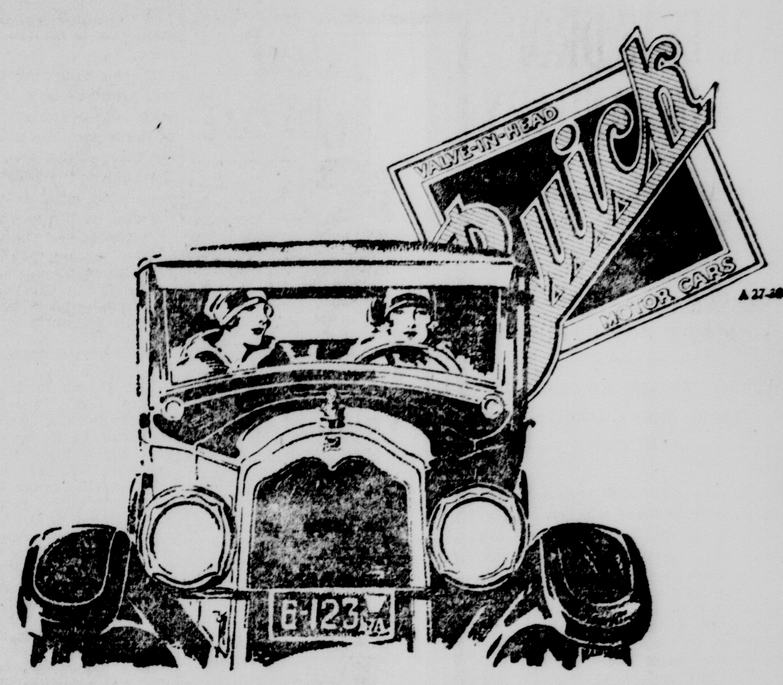

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that the little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup", and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of the little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless, "fruity laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup"; then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company".

You will find Buick a delightful car to drive

Until you drive one of the latest Buick models, you'll never know how fine motor car performance can be.

This car starts easier. It has a high-speed, heavy-duty starting motor. It steers more willingly and parks more handily, because its steering gear, especially engineered for low pressure tires, is the finest and most expensive type on any motor car today.

And you'll feel safer in a Buick. Buick 4-wheel-brakes are mechanical, with every operating part of drop-forged steel.

Above all, you will enjoy the amazing smoothness of the Buick engine, vibrationless beyond belief, at every speed.

Buy a Buick! You'll get driving qualities that are the envy of the motor car industry.

How many chances did your hands take today?

For safety, wash with the toilet soap that removes germs, as well as dirt

ALMOST every single time you touched anything today—you took a chance with germs.

For germs lurk unseen almost everywhere—and you can't escape them. Whenever you touch trolley straps, door handles, public telephones, money, rugs, shoes, pets, books—there's always the danger that germs may get on the hands.

No wonder leading health authorities say hands are among the chief spreaders of sickness. See above list of 27 germ diseases that hands may carry home.

To avoid needless risk, every member of your family—youngster as well as grown-up—should use at all times the toilet soap that removes not only dirt, but germs, too.

Fine for the skin

Millions of men, women and children use Lifebuoy for the hands, the bath, as a shampoo—for every toilet purpose.

Delicate skins thrive on it and it keeps away perspiration odors—all day! Yet best of all—Lifebuoy helps protect against disease. Its purifying lather removes germs, as well as dirt.

Note its protecting hygienic scent

Lifebuoy is so different from other toilet and bath soaps that even its scent is different.

Not a perfume, but a clean, pleasantly hygienic scent which proves Lifebuoy gives greater protection. Even before you've finished your first cake, you'll learn to love this cleanest of all soap scents, which quickly evaporates after rinsing.

Without its antiseptic, Lifebuoy would still be a wonderful toilet soap—but you wouldn't get its protection.

Like millions of others, once you form the Lifebuoy habit, you'll wonder how any other soap ever satisfied you.

Lifebuoy costs so little

Lifebuoy costs no more—probably less—than the soap you now use—so the protection it gives you is actually free!

You can get Lifebuoy wherever soap is sold. You will know it by the red box and the cake—orange-red, the color of its pure palm-fruit oils. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

New Castle's Health Officer says:

Because germs are invisible, we often minimize their danger. But if people would only realize how many times a day their hands touch germ-laden objects, they would recognize the importance of removing these germs many times a day—always before eating and before playing with children.

WM. L. STEEN, M.D.,
Health Officer
New Castle, Pa.

From all over the country come letters like this. Now, more than ever, millions are turning to Lifebuoy.

ARRESTS DROP IN JANUARY

Only 163 Are Recorded On Police Docket First Month Of 1927

ONE ARREST IS MADE FOR SPEEDING

Fifteen Women Among Those Taken Into Custody By Officers

Police activities of the month of January 1927 were marked by several things that were different from the past several months. There were fewer arrests, the fines collected were much smaller than usual and the number of women arrested in proportion to the total number increased. Also the police were really busier than usual.

The number of arrests for the month were but 163, considerably under the number for the past several months. The amount assessed in fines was but $1,232. This is hundreds of dollars less than for several months.

The number of women arrested in the month was fifteen, almost ten percent of the total as compared with an average of about five percent of the total. The charges on which women were docketed were as follows: disorderly conduct 5, violation of the Snyder Act 2, keepers of disorderly houses 5, parking violations 1, suspicion 1, visitor in disorderly house 1.

One of the features of the month was the sending to the county jail of three men for a total of 65 days. There was one speeder arrested in the month, a little unusual for this time of year and the weather conditions that have prevailed.

The number of parking violations was much smaller than usual, while there was about the usual percentage arrested as keepers of disorderly houses, on disorderly conduct charges on suspicion and for drunkenness.

The charges on which arrests were made are as follows: fighting 3, traffic violations 3, city ordinance violations 8, disorderly conduct 23, keepers of disorderly houses 15, visitors in disorderly houses 28, violation of the Snyder Act 4 larceny 1, suspicion 15, drunk 26, drunk and disorderly conduct 2, parking violations 28, arrested on warrants 2, speeding 1, inmate of disorderly house 1, driving car while intoxicated 1, interfering with an officer 2.

The disposition of the cases follow: fined 99, discharged 17, suspended sentence 34, turned over to alderman 8, sent to jail 3, sent home 1, turned over to out of town officers 1.

GIRL WRITES JAZZ SUCCESSES

Miss Mabel Wayne, 22, who does a pianologue in vaudeville, has turned out two of the biggest syncopation hits—"In a Little Spanish Town" and "I Always Knew I'd Find You." The writing of jazz songs has heretofore been looked upon as a man's field.

MAY REPLACE WHITE HOUSE DURING REPAIRS

ST. GODDARD, 20, WINS HIS THIRD DOG DERBY

Marines Prepare for Pacific Flight

United States Marines again hope to be the first to land. This time however it is on a peaceful mission, a non-stop flight from San Diego, Calif., to Honolulu. Lieut. W. B. Wallace of the Marine flying corps and Lee Schoenhair, former army aviator, will attempt the flight early in March in a giant Fokker monoplane now being constructed at Hasbrouck Heights, N. J. The plane is larger than the one in which Commander Richard Byrd made his Polar flight. Lieutenant Wallace is shown straddling a plane in the picture. His flight companion is in the inset below.

ARMIES OF THE NORTH MARCH INTO PEKING

Picture just received in America showing troops of the war lord of Mukden, Marshal Tso-Lin leaving the station to patrol the streets of Peking, ancient capital of China which is finding itself deprived of a land to rule by the victories of the Cantonese Nationalist troops of the south.

Plans Paris Flight

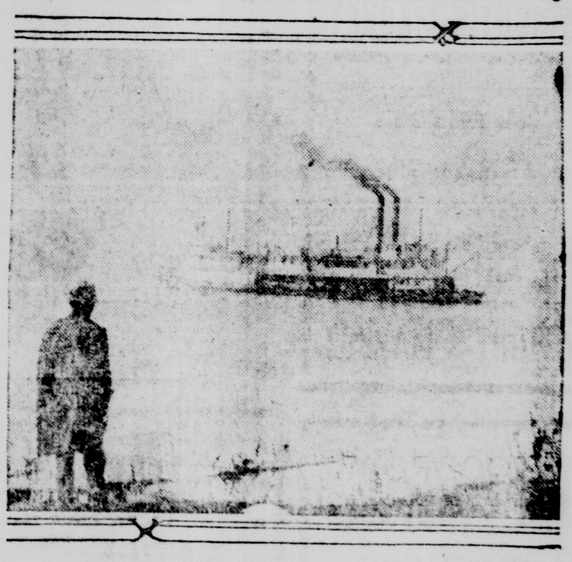

Lieut. Commander Noel Davis above, formerly in command of the air station at Squantum, Mass., now in charge of naval reserve activities, has announced his intention of attempting a New York to Paris non-stop flight to win a $25,000 prize offered by Raymond Orteig of New York. Commander Davis expects to raise between $75,000 and $100,000 to cover the costs.

THRONE CLAIMANT STRICKEN

Most recent photo of young Prince Otto, 14, eldest son of the late Emperor Charles of Austria, and claimant to the throne of Hungary, stricken by pneumonia, according to word from Lequeitio, Spain, where the youth has been living with his mother, the former Empress Zita. All the remaining children of the family also have been afflicted with pneumonia or influenza.

U. S. Sends Flood Relief Boat on Ohio

FAMILY PLEADS FOR SLAYER

The family of William Turner Harrod, 31, Louisville, Ky., have been pleading with Gov. William J. Fields of Kentucky to save the husband and father from execution. Harrod was convicted of the murder, last November, of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Rosa Nolan. The state introduced evidence that Harrod visited the Nolan residence in quest of his wife, who had taken refuge there while they were estranged and opened fire on the Nolan family. Photo shows Mrs. Alberta Harrod, with Geraldine, 6, and William T. Harrod, Jr., 2, standing in the rear. She is holding her youngest child, Margaret Shirley, 1; Marie Inez, 4, is seated beside her. Inset is of Harrod.

BOBBY JONES THE THIRD POSES

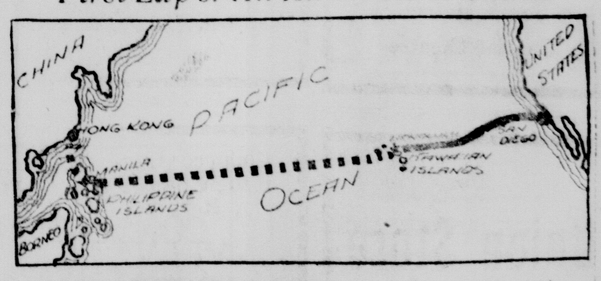

Here is the first picture made of Bobby Jones 3rd, two months' old son of Bobby Jones, holder of the American and British open golf titles. He is shown with his mother at the Jones' residence, Atlanta, Ga. There is another child, Clara Malone, 21 months.

"Most Arrested Man" Lives Here

When "the home of the most arrested man in America" is pointed out to tourists at Del Mar, Calif., they see a beautiful house in an attractive setting. In it lives Edwin A. Brown, who, as a hobby, masquerades as a tramp to learn how this specimen of humanity is treated in various American cities. He usually has succeeded in being arrested as a vagabond. Photo shows Brown and his home.

First Lap of An Air Route to China

Lieut. William Wallace of the Marine corps and Lee Shoenhair, civilian birdman, formerly of the Army air service, plan a non-stop flight early in March from San Diego, Calif., to the Hawaiian Islands. Aviators say if this 2,280 mile jump is successful, farther jumps to Manila and Hong Kong are feasible, putting China within four or five days of America via air routes. Heavy line indicates route of flight to Honolulu; dotted line, possible route, via scattered islands, to China. The Honolulu flight is being financed by Shoenhair.

Vare's Friends Fear Same Fate As Befell Smith

Pennsylvania Senator's Case Will Come Before New Congress

CHANCE IS SMALL FOR VARE'S SEATING

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Ever since the Senate voted against seating Col. Frank L. Smith as one of its members from Illinois, friends of Representative William S. Vare of Pennsylvania have been looking pretty glum.

The Vareites weren't surprised at the vote against Smith, but they were surprised by the size of it.

Nobody expected Smith to get in, but Vare figured that he had a rather better case than Smith. If Smith had been beaten by a majority of only two or three, Vare would have counted on getting perhaps half a dozen more votes than Smith did and thus squeaking through where Smith couldn't.

But Smith lost by 15 votes. That Vare can gain anything like that many on him is generally regarded as almost impossible.

In fact, Vare will stand less chance in the next Senate than he'd stand now, if he were trying to get into this one, as Smith tried to do.

This is the fag end of the 69th Congress. Vare's case will come up in the 70th. In the new Senate there will be six more Democrats than there are now. Smith and Vare both are Republicans. The Democrats voted mostly against Smith and they're sure to vote mostly against Vare.

The Republican organization was for Smith, but 15 Republican senators bolted and joined the Democrats. The Democratic organization was against Smith, but four Democrats bolted and joined the organization Republicans.

Vare doubtless will get the four Democratic Smith ballots and he may get some of the six new ones. Perhaps, too, fewer Republicans will bolt him than bolted Smith. But it's altogether unlikely that he can win by any possible realignment.

Theoretically Smith may still get in. Practically he stands no show.

His supporters argued that he ought to be seated and then investigated. The Senate voted to investigate him first and then seat him if the investigation showed that he didn't accept a $125,000 campaign contribution from Samuel Insull, public utilities magnate—a contribution which was declared to be highly improper if he did accept it.

Smith has admitted already that he accepted it. So how can an investigation help him?

No particular campaign contribution or expenditure has been pinned on Vare as improper.

He admittedly spent a huge sum and general charges of irregularities are made, but there's nothing yet as definite as the Insull charge against Smith.

Besides, Smith spent more than anybody else in the Illinois senatorial fight and won it. Vare won, but he was only second on the list of spenders in Pennsylvania. Senator Pepper, whom he beat for renomination, spent much more than he did. Vare says Pepper spent so much that he (Vare) had to be pretty liberal.

In effect, the Senate says to Smith, "if you did so-and-so, you did wrong and we bar you". Smith says "I did it, but it wasn't wrong". "It was, so you stay outside", votes the Senate.

In Vare's case indications are that the Senate will ask, "Did you do anything wrong, too?" to which Vare will answer, "No, I didn't".

Then, as strongly suggested by the Smith vote, the Senate will respond, "Well, we're so darn suspicious that we guess we'd better not have anything to do with you, anyway".

Child Is Found Drowned In Pool

MARSTELLAR Pa., Feb. 2.—The body of Frank Pollo, 8, was found today in the pool of the Pennsylvania Coal and Coke Corporation. The child was last seen yesterday morning when he left his home here to attend services in the Catholic church. It is the supposition that the boy stopped along the shore of the reservoir to play and accidentally fell into the water.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—here's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil as a substitute for calomel to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c, 30c and 60c.

Senior High School News

Commercial Department

The secretarial training students are engaged in what has been expressed by all the most interesting work yet accomplished. They are now studying the problem of transportation and its branches. Everything relative to transportation has been touched upon, including time tables, itineraries and routes, pullman reservations, differences in time, methods of shipping, terms, classes of freight, bills of lading, and in fact everything that is in any way connected with transportation. The students find this work most interesting and enthusiasm runs high.

A very practical assignment and one which will be found very useful has just been completed. First, the pupils have been assigned certain cities to which he or a salesman is to go. It is their duty to make an itinerary and map out a trip to and from these cities. It is their duty to account for the difference in time, to make pullman reservations, hotel reservations, to give the exact number of days and hours which it will take to make the trip, to give the number of the train to be taken and the hour at which it will leave and arrive at destination, to account for baggage and mail, and in short, to do everything which one would be obliged to do were one planning a trip for either pleasure or business. With the aid of time tables this has been satisfactorily completed. Trips have been planned to San Francisco, New York, Denver, Chicago, Detroit and various transcontinental trips, all of which afford very practical experience in this work.

The students are looking forward to future assignments of this kind. It has been voted the most interesting work in this course yet dealt with. Although complicated at first, the time tables were soon mastered and work has been progressing very satisfactorily. Everyone is now confident of his ability to map out a route, however long or complicated, were he called upon to do so.

Wet And Dry Issue Edges Toward Front In State Legislature

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2. — Wet and dry legislation, neither of which was expected to play a prominent part in this session of the legislature, today was edging toward the front of the stage on which ten more weekly engagements are scheduled.

Few senators are in the city today but the attention and hopes of the wets are turned toward the House where they expect to stage their biggest efforts. In that body two bills are the rallying hub for the "modification forces."

The dry forces, apparently believing nothing could be dryer than the Snyder-Armstrong Act have not yet presented legislation. Yesterday they conferred with Gov. John S. Fisher and later reported a "very satisfactory conference."

But meanwhile Representative Sttdle, Philadelphia, introduced a bill paving the way for a referendum on the liquor problem. Another from the same source would wipe from the books the Armstrong-Snyder Act. That is the measure for which the drys fought bitterly and which former Governor Pinchot looked upon as the ideal enforcement act.

The dry forces, headed by John W. Vickerman, former leader of the dry element in the House issued a statement at once saying they would "fight any suggestion" of a referendum on the liquor question. At the same time they denounced efforts to repeal the Armstrong-Snyder measure.

The United Dry Committee which is composed of the executive heads of various "anti" organizations remained on the job in force yesterday and today, straightening their lines for the battle which they say will not even be a skirmish.

The Governor refused comment on the visit of the committee, but while he expressed himself as opposed to any additional law enforcement measures it is known that an effort to loosen the present clamps will receive but little executive approval.

The wet organization meanwhile has been active in the halls of the Capitol but several of their best known lobbyists were missing from the biennial lineup. But the two year flood of propaganda has started in earnest. At least once each week the Capitol is flooded with copies of the paper issued by the wets and meanwhile supplemental editions are passed about.

According to the last issue the wets are leading for a wet referendum by the margin of four votes. The wets claim 106 for their side and give the other wing 102. It is conceded to be a pretty shaky margin and the supplement made no effort to go too closely into the mathematics of the situation.

In arriving at the total all the representatives from the sparsely settled counties of the state are conceded to the drys as a beginning. Thirty five counties are listed as "dry as a camel's tonsils." Looking for what they call "oases" and wet spots of hopefulness," they include 27 from Allegheny and 41 from Philadelphia. Other counties included in their legislative hopes are Cambria, Elk, Erie, Fayette, Westmoreland, Bucks, Berks, Carbon, Dauphin, Delaware, Lackawanna, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Montgomery, Montour, Northampton, Northumberland and Schuylkill.

The issue which has caused a lot of debate and filled lot of the journals of both houses is going to play its part again, leaders here declare, but what the net result of it all will be, depends alone on the roll call.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persisent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

Would Increase Marriage License Fee In This State

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—The high cost of living again is hitting the marriage mart.

Representative Charles E. Marsteller of Mercer has a bill before the Pennsylvania legislature increasing the cost of marriage licenses from two dollars to five dollars.

One-half the amount of the proposed fee would be returned to the state school fund under the provisions of the bill.

Hunsicker Named By Philadelphia For Senate Seat

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2. — Dr. William G. Hunsicker, Republican, was elected to the senate seat of the late William J. McNichol in the special election held in the third senatorial district yesterday. Hunsicker was elected by a majority of 12,770 over his Democratic opponent, Frederick K. Gearhart.

The month of February was added to the year by Numa, about 713 B. C.

Brother-Killer Exonerated By Coroner's Jury

FARRELL, Pa., Feb. 2.—Two men, each charged with homicide, faced a coroner's jury here last night. One, charged with killing his brother, was relased when the jury found the killing was justifiable. The other was held for the county grand jury without bail.

Steve Marenchin, 21 who fired in self defense the bullet which killed his brother was relased from the custody of officers immediately after the verdict. He was given an ovation as he left the council chamber where the inquest was held. He greeted his mother and sisters who were present at the hearing. Two of the sisters Elizabeth and Pauline, testified in bahalf of the accused, stating that the youth acted in defense of himself, his mother and of them. On numerous occasions previously the older brother had threatened other members of the family and driven them from their home, their testimony declared. Steve Marenchin testified in his own behalf giving full details of the shooting Sunday night which led to his brother's death in Buhl hospital an hour afterward.

Councilman Is Facing Charges

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Feb. 2. — Charged with being a partner in a firm which contracted for borough work, while a member of the borough council, R. M. Elliott, member of the council of Pitcairn, a suburb, today faced removal from office for alleged violation of a state law. He was ordered by Judge Nelson McVicar of common pleas court to appear before that court on February 11, to explain why he should not be punished.

Attorney J. C. McGinnis, of Pitcairn, asked that Elliott be brought into court, charging that the defendant entered into a contract with the borough for painting a house, aiding his brother, J. A. Elliott, a contractor, in the work.

Elliott offered as his defense that he assisted his brother only as a friendly act, and not for gain.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

TOGETHER AGAIN

Peter and the little Girl had become so interested in the strange Boy they had stumbled upon that almost they had forgotten Pixie. There he was, some distance off, seated cross-legged in the big black centre of a tall Sun-Flower. And the Sun-Flower itself was in the centre of a circle of children. And Pixie was talking to some one within the ring, but who?

Peter and the litle Girl hurried forward to find out, and when they were just within the circle they heard Pixie say:—

"There, there, Doggie, you'll find him if he's here. But whining will not help matters one single bit. Come, now, cheer up! Perhaps your master is nearer than you think. How do you expect to find him if you hang your head like that?"

"But I've trotted through the flower beds until my feet are weary," came a mournful bark, "and I've searched each passing face until my eyes are dim. Boys there are in plenty, but never a glimpse I've had of my Master. I've come so far to find him, and I fear I've missed him."

"I wouldn't worry if I were you! Suppose your Master isn't here. Wouldn't one of these other boys do?"

"No, no, no!" yelped Pat sharply. "There's only one Boy in the world for me, and if I find him not I'll have no other for my Master!"

The Boys in the circle about him looked disappointed and muttered among themselves. Perhaps each had hoped he might be chosen as a substitute.

PIXIE SAT CROSS-LEGGED IN THE CENTRE OF A SUN-FLOWER.

But Peter heard not what they said, nor did he care. He had been standing stock still just without the ring, with his finger on his lips motioning the little Girl to silence. And now at this reply to Pixie's question he made a sudden dash through the ring, dragging the astonished little Girl after him.

"Pat!" shrieked he. "Pat!"

At the sound of his voice the Dog fairly went out of his head for joy.

"Master! Dear, dear Master!" yelped he and stood on his hind legs and reached with his pink tongue for the tip of Peter's nose.

EDENBURG

Next Thursday afternoon the missionary society of the Edenburg Christian church will meet for a special session and program in the home of Mrs. Miller on the North Side at 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. Mary Morson is president.

Next Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock there will be Rally Day services in the Edenburg Christian Sunday school.

Interesting services will be held in the Christian church next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. L. C. Howe, formerly of Miami, Fla. will be the preacher. In the morning he will preach, on "The True Mission of the Holy Spirit." In the evening his subject will be, "The Great Heart of Abraham Lincoln."

The evening service will be a patriotic-religious occasion in commemoration of Lincoln's birthday. Soldiers of all wars have been especially invited. There will be a fine program of special music in quartets, solos and chorus selections.

DINNER STORIES

The professor was trying to demonstrate a simple experiment in the generation of steam.

"What have I in my hand?" he asked.

"A tin can," came the answer.

"Very true. Is the can an animate or an inanimate object?"

"Inanimate."

"Exactly. Now can anyone tell me how, with this can, it is possible to generate a surprising amount of speed and power almost beyond control?"

One student raised his hand.

"Well, Smith?"

"Tie it to a dog's tail."

Aunt Matha, aged eighty-four, and her niece moved to a new town. She just could not remember the name Lusher, her next-door neighbor. Her niece said: "Why, Aunt Matha, just think of luscious fruit, and that will suggest Lusher." "Yes, that's so," replied Aunt Matha; and during the day she would repeat: "Luscious fruit, luscious fruit, Mr. Lusher. Now I've got it." The next morning she met her neighbor, and said, very charmingly, "Good morning Mr. Delicious."

NEW CASTLE HIGH'S 1927 GRID CARD ANNOUNCED

Schedule Strongest In School's History

Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner Announces Completed Gridiron Program For This Fall; Schedule Contains Nine Home Games And One Away; Butler, Ellwood City, Erie Academy And Schenley Do Not Get Places on Calendar; Dayton Steele, Youngstown South, Erie East And Washington Hold Featured Dates; Season To Open September 17 With Grove City As Opponent

By "BUGS" WALTHER

NEW CASTLE High's 1927 football schedule will be the strongest ever attempted in the history of the popular fall pastime at the local institution. The program as announced today by Student Manager Louis Brown contains nine home games and one game abroad.

Taking an eye for an eye and a football team at face value, the writer fails to find what one could rightly call "something soft". The unsophisticated orb of the average grid enthusiast will scan the schedule with glee, turn a few somersaults, possibly into the vinegar vat, and come up yelling for more. Some will view the program with disdain, and others will merely need convincing; but it takes all kinds of people to make up the world.

Fine Schedule

New Castle High is biting off a rather large "chunk". There are at least five teams under contract to appear here next fall, rated as class A number one teams, and there are four other teams rated nearly as high. If New Castle High comes through the list undefeated it will be the cue to rise up and tell the united populace of this great domain that right here in Lawrence county we have a real, honest-to-goodness grid team.

It is a wild guess on the part of the writer that no other high school team this side of the Atlantic Ocean and east of the Pacific coast will have any harder tasks to perform than the chores that await the Red and Black clad warriors out on the greensward of Ben Franklin High starting with Grove City High on Saturday, Sept. 17. If there is a scholastic team with a stronger array of foes, then the writer awaits them with a handful of concrete toothpicks, and the line forms on the left.

For many years the fans of New Castle have been yammering for a schedule that would test the real strength of the local high school team. Well, my dear brethren, that wait is ended. Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner, assisted by Student Manager Brown pondered for many, many hours over the task of lining up a calendar for the grid cohorts, and countless hundreds of letters and dispatches were sent hither and thither, and finally out of this maze of correspondence grew a ten-game schedule that was made public today for the first time in completed form.

Four Teams Dropped

There will be four teams on the 1926 schedule missing when it comes time to start the pigskin tumbling over the hard surface. Butler High, Ellwood City, Schenley High of Pittsburgh and Erie Academy failed to land places on the schedule. It is understood that negotiations were opened with all four of the teams in mention, but for some reason it was found that there could be no get-together, consequently other teams snapped up the vacant places until the card was picked clean as a Thanksgiving turkey.

Grove City High will aid the locals in the lid-lifting ceremonies here on Saturday, Sept. 17. Grove City High is rated high in grid circles in Mercer county and has always given the locals plenty in the way of opposition. Franklin High will come here on the following Saturday with a team that will test the Red and Black.

Mars High, the "haughty little school" that held the locals to a scoreless deadlock in the first game of the year in 1926, will be the third team to face the locals. Mars High will have just as good a team next year as they had last season. They lose but three men, and according to advices from the Butler county school, they are planning for a great season in 1927. Donora High, the team that held New Castle to a 7-7 tie here last fall, will be the fourth team on the schedule. It is the earnest hope of the fans that Mortak, the clever fullback, will graduate or something. It was this youngster with 175 pounds of speed and dynamic tactics, that literally tore the locals to pieces last year. The fans will recall this youth with reverence. He was a football player all the way, and there have been few to grace the Ben Franklin field that were superior to him.

Dayton Steel Coming Here

Dayton Steele, one of the strongest teams in the state of Ohio, accepted the fifth date on the program. New Castle will have their hands full with the Daytonites. There is no getting around that fact. Dayton Steele last year was rated mighty high in Ohio scholastic circles and they will be every bit as clever in 1927, according to word from Dayton. Dayton Steele will afford the fans a good opportunity of comparing teams, because using the exact words of Coach Bridenbaugh, "Dayton Steele is about the finest football team that i have ever seen". And that's saying a mouthful for Bridenbaugh. "I would have liked to play them with the team we had here in 1924", said the coach. "It would have been a real game".

Following the Dayton Steele game the locals will journey to Youngstown South for their only trip outside the city limits all year. The South High game was to have been played here, but things were switched around a little, and so New Castle will play in Youngstown in 1927 and Youngstown will come here in 1928.

Peabody Signed

Peabody High of Pittsburgh accepted the October 29 date, in place of Beaver Falls High. Negotiations were opened with Beaver Falls upon receipt of a letter from the valley school, but the matter was allowed to slide and it slid clear out of sight. Peabody will hold a featured place on the grid card. The Pittsburgh school has always supported a strong aggregation of pigskin artists and next year is looked forward to as one of their best.

Swissvale High is a newcomer to the card, and while the average fan will probably get out the family map to find just where it is located, some will recall that this same team tied Turtle Creek Union last year and performed many other notable feats on the green turf, and so were awarded a game on the New Castle schedule. Swissvale will have a mighty fine team next season is the general belief.

East High of Erie, the team that was scheduled this year but things fell through, will be here on Saturday, Nov. 12. Erie East can be counted on to have a strong eleven. The Lake City team is rated as one of the best in the northwestern section, and they have set some fine records in the past few years.

The Thanksgiving Day battle brings to New Castle's playing field a team that in the estimation of many sport critics is one of the best coached and finest high school teams in the country. The team in mention is Washington High, W. P. I. A. L. champions in 1926, and a mighty fine outfit. The Washington game will bring to a close the grid season, and whether it is successful or not, the fans can rest assured that they have seen some of the finest teams in this section of the country in action.

Following is the completed 1927 football schedule:

Sept. 17—Grove City, at New Castle.
Sept. 24—Franklin, at New Castle.
Oct. 1, Mars at New Castle.
Oct. 8.—Donora at New Castle.
Oct. 15—Dayton Steele, at New Castle.
Oct. 22—Youngstown South, at Youngstown.
Oct. 29—Peabody High, Pittsburgh, at New Castle.
Nov. 5—Swissvale, at New Castle.
Nov. 12—East High, Erie, at New Castle.
Nov. 19—(Permanently open).
Nov. 24—Washington High, at New Castle.

Castle Aquatic Club Hears Fine Talk Tuesday

Plan For Lawrence County Senior And Junior Indoor Swimming Meet

The members of the Castle Aquatic club at their regular monthly meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday night heard two fine talks by well known local swimmers and also held an important business session.

Mrs. Elmer Robinson gave the club members a splendid talk on "Swimming and Physical Fitness," and Edwin H. Geasa, swimming instructor at the Ben Franklin High school also gave a fine talk on "Swimming and Youth." Both speakers had plenty of interesting material for the club members and the talks were thoroughly enjoyed.

Following the speeches the club members held their regular business session at which time temporary plans were outlined by the club to conduct a Lawrence County Senior and Junior indoor swimming meet. The possibilities of such a meet was placed in the hands of a committee over which Alec Samuels will act as chairman. The committee is to report at the next meeting of the club.

The club drew up a program calling for necessary protection and sefety at all the city bathing beaches. It is the aim of the club to safeguard as much as possible the lives of the city swimmers. It is planned to have experienced swimmers at all of the beaches next summer to act as life guards.

The meeting was presided over by Ray Nolte, president of the association.

High Floor Team Is Without Captain, May Appoint One Shortly

By "BUGS" WALTHER

The New Castle High floor team is without a captain. With Clarence Klaber the "titian-haired" leader of the undefeated Section IV quintet ineligible due to completion of his scholastic work at the half-semester, the team will be leaderless for the time being at least.

Klaber will be missed in the games to be played by New Castle High in the immediate future. The West Side youth was considered one of the best defensive guards in the league and was a tower of strength to the Red and Black. The task of filling his shoes will be a hard one, for Coach Bridenbaugh. It is likely that either Richards or Silliman will draw the assignment.

As to the matter of a captain and leader, Coach Bridenbaugh let it be known to the writer that he intends to appoint a captain prior to each game, this method will be utilized for the time being according to the coach.

Two Possibilities

There is not a man on the squad this year with a year's experience as a member of the New Castle High team. The team for the greater part is made up of material from Ben Franklin High with Ostrosky, Sillman and Johnson holding positions. Reider is a new comer here, and McGrath is playing his first year of basketball. In point of service Tippy Richards and "Nig" Franklin are the two oldest members of the team, and it may fall upon the shoulders of either of these two boys to lead the team into battle. Both Franklin and Richards have held down substitute roles this year.

The New Castle team will meet an acid test Friday night of this week when they journey to Evans City for their sixth league encounter.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

I have been asked by a major league magnate what I think the coming year holds for baseball in view of the unpleasantness of the past couple of months caused by the playful dumping over of the baseball garbage cans. The answer is simple.

It depends entirely upon the quality of baseball the players—those implicated and those whose skirts were unsoiled—and the degree of sincerity shown by the magnates themselves in seeking the public's confidence once more.

Time alone will tell whether or not said magnates have learned their lesson finally and are prepared to put the game ahead of their own personal ends, enmities and even their exchequers.

Should be Right in Trim.

The jolly magnates should be in good physical condition—what with the dash to the street corner three or four times a day for weeks to get the latest edition of the papers to see what Ban or Landis or Swede Risberg had said about them.

The road jaunts during the season ought not to bother them. They've grown used to train traveling between their home towns and Chicago.

The Pullman company will be the losers however. The magnates may have registered under assumed names when they arrived—to avoid publicity—but they ate under their own names in the diner.

President Bernard of the Cleveland club announces that it wouldn't be good policy to return Tris Speaker to the team as a private under the new manager. The beautiful part of this policy is that it saves the club some $20,000—the difference between Spoke's pay check and Jack McCallister's.

The expression "In dutch" will be taboo in the game this year, the action of Mr. Hubert Leonard, left-handed pitcher and thinker, having cast considerable odium on the dutch part. And the appelation "You big Swede" will have to be used with a broad, expansive almost explosive grin. Risberg's digression from the usual farm topics while putting a few new boards in the barn floor may be blamed for this.

* * *

I am advised that neither Mr. Leonard nor Mr. Risberg as they were referred to by Judge Landis will receive season passes from the American league. Risberg doesn't get to town very often and Leonard has $20,000 to spend for tickets.

Gardner Named To League Post

Local School Official Named As Member Of W. P. I. A. L. Grid Committee

W. W. Lantz, president of the W. P. I. A. L. in selecting 12 high school officials from this section to act as an advisory board concerning scholastic grid conditions and matters, has honored New Castle High by naming Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner to a position on the board.

It will be the duty of the twelve men selected to consider the football situation and also the classification of the schools for athletic purposes. The committee named: J. W. Cameron, North Braddock; L. F. Brunk, Crafton; H. B. Weaver, New Kensington; Samuel Fausold, Ambridge; Charles F. Young, Swissvale; D. W. Stewart, Beaver; C. R. McClelland, Monessen; John R. Kurtz, Vandergrift; F. C. Gillespie, Duquesne; J. Foster Gehrett, South High; and Ralph H. Gardner, New Castle.

Although the main purpose of the committee is for the general improvement of the grid situation in the W. P. I. A. L. organization, it will also look into the Syracuse Trophy cup awarding at the end of each year and to arrange the teams for elimination games if such should be the case. The matter of awarding the cup has been muddled somewhat for the past five or six years and it is expected that the committee will have the means to straighten out any difficulties that may arise.

The committee will meet at the call of Chairman J. G. Hulton of Latrobe at an early date and meantime the members have been instructed to ascertain the sentiment in their district regarding the matters to be discussed at the next gathering.

Liberty Five To Battle Trojans

The fast stepping Liberty Five will meet their acid test tonight on the Lincoln-Garfield gym floor when they tangle with the Trojans.

On Thursday night the Liberty passers will meet the Central Christian team of the New Castle Church League. The game will be played on the Lincoln-Garfield court.

The Liberty tossers have won nine straight games to date and have set a fast pace among the junior teams of the city. Should the Liberty Five capture both contests scheduled this week, they will have a mighty good claim to the title.

The addition of Neyman, former New Castle High star will bolster up the Liberty lineup. The following players are to report for both games; Reiber, Neyman, Roher, Parker, Rogovin, Jenkins, Thomas, Nocera, McGonigle, Manager Tino and Coach Jones.

If Fidel La Barba adheres to his present intention to retire next fall pugilism will lose one of the most popular and gentlemanly boxers who have graced the ring in many a day. The world's flyweight champion plans to enter Leland Stanford University next September.

Heat is a great destroyer of the accuracy of billiard balls and in tropical countries it is a very rare occurence to find a set of billiard balls that are true.

Lincoln Five To Play Geneva Reserves Here

Tonight on the Y. M. C. A. court the Lincoln Five, junior champions of Lawrence county last year and one of the leading teams of the City Industrial league, will clash with the Geneva College Reserve quintet. The preliminary game will bring together the Mt. Jackson High and Union High teams. The first game starts at 8:15 o'clock.

The games tonight are being played as a part of a benefit fund for the purchase of a mat for the Y. M. C. A. wrestling team. The mat costs a large sum and it was decided to pay for the mat by using the services of several of the leading floor teams of the city. The teams are donating their services to the Y. M. C. A.. A small guarantee has been granted the Geneva College Reserves, and the remainder of the money will go into the fund for the purchase of the mat. Walter E. Kirker physical director of the Y. M. C. A. is in charge of the fund.

The Lincolns hope to defeat the strong Reserve team. The Lincolns have held many practice sessions of late and the team is fit and ready for the battle that awaits them. Coach Fraser is confident that his team can give the college passers a hard battle for honors.

The preliminary game between Mt. Jackson High and Union High should be a fast affair. It will mark the first home appearance for the Unionites and the fans are anxious to get a peek at this team in action.

Two good games are on tap for tonight and both for the price of one. You can see two floor games and feel that you have contributed to a worthy cause. The members of the wrestling team are working hard to raise the fund and also to maintain the popular indoor sport in this city.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

MIKE McTigue is anxious to get a return shot at Jack Delaney, who stopped Michael in the years gone by. He says that an operation performed recently has given him back all of the old kick he had several years ago, and believes that it will assert itself in another bout with Delaney. Mike says he doesn't give a continental about the light-heavyweight championship but is willing to fight anybody. Judging from the way he chopped Berlenbach to pieces, then stopped him, the big boys will not be any too anxious to ask for the first shot against Mike and his 170 pounds.

DR. CLARENCE Spears, coach at Minnesota, has decided to turn down an offer to fill the shoes of Glenn Thistlewaite at Northwestern, he has announced. It is understood that the Northwestern berth pays $7,500 a year. At Minnesota Spears has no contract, but is on the same basis as other faculty members.

TY COBB claims to have received offers from five big league clubs, and as he is a free agent he can sign with any club he desires. He will not accept any of the offers until he returns from a hunting trip to Augusta, Ga. Connie Mack is anxious to obtain Cobb's services, he stated today at Philadelphia.

PRESIDENT Stoneham of the Giants stated today that "under no circumstances will Rogers Hornsby be returned to the Cardinals", who have re-elected the star infielder to a member of the board of directors. It looks as though Rogers will have to sell his stock in the St. Louis club.

WALTER Hagen believes a penalty of one strike is enough for an out-of-bound shot. "What is the sense in charging two strikes for a well hit ball, for example, which falls within bounds but takes a bad hop and lands alongside the course?" he asks.

STEPS have been taken by the officials of the W. P. I. A. L. which may bring about a reclassification of the schools compiling the organization and to arrange for a permanent grid award. The steps were ordered by President W. W. Lantz, and J. G. Hulton, Latrobe, has been named as chairman of the committee. Ralph Gardner of New Castle High has been given a place on the committee.

ELSIE Muller of New York was crowned champion of the women's division in the national skating tourney at Detroit when she took five first places in the remaining events of her division. She tallied 120 points by winning the 220-yard and the mile race and the quarter and half-mile events Monday night.

Coach And Pupil

The "Millrose 600" is the piece de resistance of the great indoor athletic carnival held annually by the Millrose Athletic Association of New York. The prize for this event is the Percy D. Haughton trophy, which was presented last year by a Harvard graduate. It was designed by a famous sculptor, and is worth $600—in other words, a dollar a yard.

Back in 1923 a young man named Alan Boone Helffrich, of Penn State College, won the Millrose 600, defeating the famous Earl Eby, who had previously won the trophy twice. Alan Helffrich evidently enjoyed the sensation of his first "Millrose 600" victory, for he repeated in 1924, 1925 and 1926, and tonight will attempt to stretch his string of triumphs to five in a row. The times turned in by this black-haired streak from Penn State were nothing short of remarkable, too, as his average for the four years has been 1:13 2-5, which equals the former world's record established, I believe, by Dave Caldwell, which stood until 1922. Helffrich is the holder of the present world's indoor record of 1:11 3-5 for 600 yards, made in 1925.

In a conversation with Alan the other day, he gave great credit to his former coach, Nate Cartmell, who puts the boys through their paces on the track and field at Penn State College. Nate's record as a sprinter in the IC4A meets has never been equalled. After winning second place in the 100 and 220-yard dashes in his freshman year, he proceeded to win both sprints in his sophomore, junior and senior years! Following some sensational 'professional running he coached at Lafayette, North Carolina and West Virginia, and then went to Penn State in January, 1923.

"As for his coaching ability", says Alan, who ought to know, "he is one of the best in the country, and there is no coach who takes as much interest in the individual boy as Nate Cartmell does. This is not the easiest way to coach, either, but it does the most good."

As Alan graduated from State College in 1925, he had three years of Nate's coaching, and the results speak for themselves. National and intercollegiate titles have been won by Helffrich, and he has scored half-mile victories over two of Europe's most famous runners, Paavo Nurmi and Dougles Lowe. Later I will tell about Alan's hardest race, as well as about the time he won a half-mile race in 1:57 1-5, after running nearly 200 yards with only one shoe on!

FIVE WAYS TO JUDGE CIGARS

In judging the quality of a cigar consider these five points: (1) Burn; (2) Aroma; (3) Taste or flavor; (4) Color; (5) Workmanship.

Get a San Felice at 5c and tell us your idea as to which of these five features is the chief reason for its amazing popularity. Cigar experts themselves are not agreed. Is it the smoothness, the fragrance, or that zesty mildness—of San Felice that is daily winning hosts of new friends? Without special inducement or heavy advertising the demand for San Felice has doubled and trebled. Perhaps it is the mild tasty cigar you are looking for. It costs only 5c to find out. Get a San Felice today and then you'll know.

Supper Event On Thursday Evening

Opportunity Circle Holding Supper; Other News Of Seventh Ward

Plans are nearly completed for the supper event being held in the Mahoning Presbyterian dining room Thursday evening. The supper is being given by the members of the Opportunity Circle. Committees in charge of the event are as follows:

Kitchen committee: Mrs. W. C. Patterson, Mrs. Gertrude Marshall, Mrs. F. W. Guy, Mrs. R. W. Hamilton, Mrs. H. V. Brown, Mrs. C. E. Dungan.

Dining room committee: Mrs. C. L. Martin, Mrs. W. F. McClurg and Mrs. C. H. Willey.

Ticket committee: Mrs. H. E. Rhodes and Mrs. J. E. Kerr.

OPPORTUNITY CIRCLE

Friday afternoon in the church parlor the members of the Opportunity Circle of the Mahoning Presbyterian church will have their monthly meeting. The program for the meeting is as follows:

Devotionals in charge of Mrs. A. R. Mornes; the missionary topic, "Chosen", will be discussed by Mrs. H. E. Rhodes, Mrs. Charles Thompson and Mrs. W. F. McClurg. Hostesses for the afternoon are: Mrs. J. E. Kerr, Mrs. D. C. Schnebly and Mrs. C. B. Farver.

INSPIRING MEETINGS

Increasing audiences are marking the evangelistic services in the Madison Avenue Christian church, which began Sunday evening. Last evening Rev. E. K. Van Winkle, the evangelist, preached on the subject, "The Great Battleground of the World". Special music is a feature of each evening's service. Tuesday evening a quartet sang, comprised of Miss Elizabeth Gilmore, Miss Helen Wilson, J. F. Edmunds and J. M. Bevan.

This evening Rev. Van Winkle will preach on the theme: "The Decease of Jesus at Jerusalem". This evening the Mahoning M. E. church members plan to attend this service in a body. Time of service, 7:45.

CLASS MEETING

The members of the Sabbath school class of the Mahoning Methodist church, taught by Mrs. I. E. McCoy, will have their monthly class meeting in the church parlor Thursday evening.

PLAN FOR DANCE

The Lyceum Club of St. Margaret's church is giving a dance Friday evening of this week in the K. of P. hall on Washington street. Extensive plans are being made for the event by various committees in charge.

RETURNS HOME

Mrs. Ed. Lynch of Warren, Pa., has returned home after visiting with her mother, Mrs. Anna Lyden, of West Madison avenue.

VISITS HERE

Mrs. Charles Forcht of Pittsburgh, Pa., visited with friends in the Seventh Ward on Saturday.

MEMBERS OF CHOIR

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barnes of Pittsburgh, Pa., former residents of the ward, are members of the Mt. Lebanon Methodist church choir, which will broadcast over the radio from station WCAE, at Pittsburgh, Friday evening between eight and nine o'clock.

BASKETBALL GAME

Thursday, immediately after school, the Mahoning school girls' varsity basketball team will play the Business College girls' team at Mahoning school. An interesting game is anticipated.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Mrh. B. W. Mercer of West Madison avenue entertained a few guests in her home Saturday afternoon honoring the birthday of her son Britton Mercer Jr. During the afternoon games were the pastimes. Later dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. Mercer. The honor guest received a number of gifts. Guests present were Leo and Billy Thompson, James and Ernest Edwards, Walter Logan and the honor guest Britton Mercer Jr.

ATTEND DEMONSTRATION.

Approximately 55 ladies from the Mahoning Presbyterian church attended a demonstration of electrial articles, lights, refrigerator, washing machine etc., at the Marvin Electric company Tuesday evening.

B .W. R. CLUB.

Mrs. Sam Taylor and daughter Mrs. Henry Thayer were joint hostesses to the members of the B. W. R. club in her home on Ashland avenue Tuesday evening. Twenty members were present and one new member joined the club during the evening. The prize of the evening was won by Mrs. Lillian Craven. In a guessing contest the prize was awarded Mrs. F. S. Weisbaker. The evening was spent socially with games and fancy work. At a seasonable hour delicious refreshments were served by the associate hostesses, Mrs. Sam Taylor and Mrs. Thayer assisted by Mrs. I. W. Taylor and Miss Gladys Taylor.

In one month the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. F. S. Weisbaker on North Cedar street.

With New Castle Afro-Americans

P. L. D. Reading Circle

Mrs. Grace Boyd entertained the members of the P. L. D. Reading Circle at her home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Mabel Gardner presided and 18 members responded to roll call.

Mrs. Carolyn Williams was program leader. The topic of the evening was "Women of the Bible". Papers were read by Mrs. Carolyn Williams, Mrs. Bell Shannon, Mrs. Ethel Wall, Mrs. Vera Brown and Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas. Music was given by the Circle.

Special guests were Mrs. Agnes Alexander, Mrs. Etta Davis and Mrs. Anna Young. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Julia Fitzhugh, Miss Katherine Fitzhugh and Misses Birdie and Edith Boyd. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Vera Brown of Fulkerson street.

GREENSBURG PRIEST RISKS LIFE SAVING VESSELS FROM FIRE

GREENSBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—Our Lady of Grace Catholic church was damaged by fire yesterday. The damage was estimated at $20,000. The fire started in the roof and spread rapidly throughout the frame structure.

Father Albanese, pastor, risked his life in saving sacred vessels locked in the tabernacle. All available fire apparatus here was summoned and firemen fought the blaze for more than two hours before bringing it under control. They prevented the flames from spreading to the parish house, adjoining the church.

Boardman Wins From Bessemer

Good Game Is Played In Boardman High Gym—Score 35 To 28

(Special To The News)

BESSEMER, Feb. 2.—The Bessemer Pirates went down to another defeat at the hands of an Ohio team, bowing 35-28 to the Boardman Merrimakers, at the Boardman high gym Monday evening in a hard fought game.

The Pirates held their own during the first half. Swanson and Jacobson each found the hoops three times, and Olson also contributed one field goal, but the half found them trailing the Boardman team by two points, the score being 16-14.

With the start of the second half, Bessemer's team work snapped and the Boardman players took advantage of this snap and further widened the gap between the two teams, the score at the end of the third session being 29-20. As the final session got under way, the Pirates scored two baskets in a row and for a while looked as though they were going to overtake the Boardman team. However in trying to build up their end of the score, they forgot completely that the Boardman team was intent on doing the same thing with their end of the score, and three times in a row, a Boardman player was left under his basket, without a guard being within ten feet of him. Even at that the Pirates could still have pulled out on top, had they not hesitated for just a moment when near their own basket. This moment of hesitation was just enough for a Boardman player to cover the man with the ball.

Lineup:

Pirates—28		Boardman—35
Jacobson	F.	Slagle
Olson	F.	Gaither
Swanson	C.	L. Elser
Smith	G.	O. Elser
Beale	G.	Love

Subs.—Bessemer, Chaney, Carlson.

Scoring field goals—Jacobson 5, Olson 2, Swanson 4, Smith 2, Carlson 1, Slagle 4, Gaither 4, L. Elser 5, O. Elser 1, Love 1.

Foul Goals—L. Elser 5.

Referee—Carlson.

Timer—Ruehle.

Award First Race To Culver City

CULVER CITY, Cal., Feb. 2.—The mile and a quarter Culver City bowl, unusued for almost a year, will be the scene of the first national championship race of the American Automobile association's 1927 racing season March 6. This was announced today by P. S. (Puss) Haldriter, who with a group of associates recently leased the plant. Sanction for a 250-mile classic for prizes totaling $25,000 was received yesterday from the A. A. A., Halbriter said.

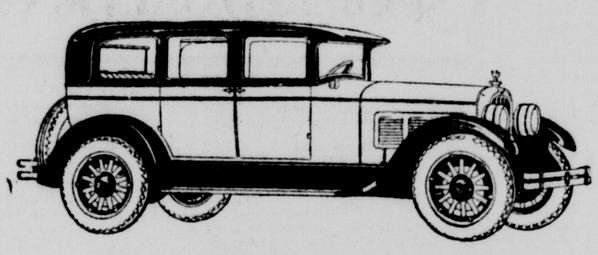

The aggregate cost of obtaining Ty Cobb, Rogers Hornsby, Tris Speaker, George Sisler, Eddie Collins, Joe Jackson, Grover Alexander and Roger Peckinpaugh was less than the majority of these players drew down in later years for playing one season.

Leesburg News

Mrs. Margaret Rice was very pleasantly surprised on January 23 on her return from preaching service at the Leesburg Presbyterian church, to find her children and grandchildren in her home to celebrate her fiftieth wedding anniversary with her.

Mrs. Rice, who was formerly Miss Margaret Gilfillan of near Harlansburg, was united in marriage to Newton B. Rice on January 23, 1877. Mr. Rice was called from earth about sixteen years ago. They were the parents of three sons and three daughters. There are now thirteen grandchildren in the family.

A fine dinner was served with table decorations in gold and white, after which the children presented their mother with a new wedding ring to replace the worn band of fifty years ago. The afternoon was spent pleasantly with music and family reunion. Mrs. Rice related some very interesting reminiscenses of her wedding day. Those present were Mrs. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rice and daughter Sarah Mabel; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rice and sons Billy, Bobby and Richard, and daughter Betty; Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Rice and son Arden and Miss Nellie Rice. Special guests were Mrs. Paul Stonebraker of New Castle, and Miss Velma Huey of Jackson Center. Two daughters, Mrs. A. A. Reicherd of Portersville, Pa., and Mrs. W. R. Rice of Toulon, Ill., were not present.

Mrs. Jane Woods has returned from an extended visit with relatives at Warren, Ohio, and New Castle.

Mrs. Hollis Johnston and daughter returned from the Mercer hospital Thursday.

John Hughes was a New Castle caller Tuesday.

Mrs. Edward Millison entertained the members of the Dorcass Club at her home Wednesday. Quilting was the occupation of the day. A delicious chicken dinner was served at the noon hour to the following guests: Mrs. Fred Knauff, Mrs. Bill Kelley, Mrs. Dave Fletcher, Mrs. Adam Kauffman, Misses [illegible] and Minnie Hill, Mrs. T. J. Armstrong, Mrs. Mont Crawford, Mrs. Parshall Mrs. W. G. McCracken and Mrs. Walter Armstrong. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Will Drake's home.

Mrs. C. B. White and son John of New Wilmington were visitors here Friday.

James Grundy is ill at the Mercer hospital. He has a severe case of blood poison on his face.

Mrs. Francis Montgomery was a New Castle shopper Tuesday.

Mrs. Blevins of Volant spent Thursday with relatives here.

Mrs. W. G. McCracken spent several days the past week at New Castle.

Miss Violet Macom who has been employed at Mercer is visiting at Blacktown with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McClymonds.

Carlon Orr, Jr., was at the Mercer hospital two days this week for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Offutt were New Castle callers Thursday.

Mrs. Archie Palmer of Mercer was a recent visitor at William Lusks.

Miss Orpha Scollard has been ill the past week with a bad cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simon and family of Grove City were Sunday visitors at A. J. Kauffman's.

Mr. and Mrs. Baughman of New Castle, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford.

Miss Helen Macom of New Castle, was a caller here Wednesday night.

The teachers are serving hot chocolate to the pupils at noon. This is a very good idea and is especially so on a cold day.

Frank Collins of Ellwood City, spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Anderson of Wampum, were Sunday visitors here.

Mrs. S. S. Snyder is ill with the grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Black were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lusk, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Russell Roberts and daughters Edna and Carrie Jane spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Davis.

Miss Carrie Baughman has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnston were visitors at New Wilmington Sunday.

Mrs. Pete Davis is spending the week with her sister at Hilliard.

The men of the community are invited to a meeting in the community room Monday evening. Mr. Junkin, the new editor of the Mercer Dispatch will be the principal speaker.

Walter Johnson, veteran pitcher of the American league, has signed his 20th contract with the Washington Senators.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

Beginning of the "Peninsula" Campaign.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

GEN. JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON LEARNED OF McCLELLAN'S PLAN TO ADVANCE ON RICHMOND BY WAY OF THE "PENINSULA" BETWEEN THE YORK AND JAMES RIVERS ALMOST AS SOON AS IT WAS FORMED. HE AT ONCE WITHDREW HIS ARMY FROM MANASSAS AND HASTENING TO RICHMOND MADE PREPARATIONS FOR ITS DEFENSE.

McCLELLAN, SETTING OUT FROM FORTRESS MONROE, FOUND HIS ADVANCE BLOCKED BY A THIN LINE OF CONFEDERATE ENTRENCHMENTS THAT EXTENDED, THIRTEEN MILES, FROM YORKTOWN TO THE JAMES. THE UNION FORCES COULD HAVE TAKEN THE WORKS BY STORM, BUT McCLELLAN ARGUED THAT SIEGE OPERATIONS WERE NECESSARY.

HE SET HIS MEN DIGGING EARTHWORKS AND PLANTING BATTERIES OF HEAVY SIEGE GUNS AND MORTARS, AND AFTER A MONTH'S DELAY WAS READY TO OPEN FIRE WHEN THE CONFEDERATES QUIETLY ABANDONED THEIR POSITION. THE FEDERALS AT ONCE STARTED IN PURSUIT.

AT WILLIAMSBURG THE CONFEDERATES FOUGHT A FIERCE REAR-GUARD ACTION, BUT WERE DEFEATED. AFTER INFLICTING HEAVY LOSSES ON THEIR PURSUERS, AND CONTINUED TO FALL BACK SLOWLY TOWARD RICHMOND.

TOMORROW—McCLELLAN BEFORE RICHMOND.

Former State Senator Brown Dies In Home

(International News Service)

JEANNETTE, Pa., Feb. 2.—Former State Senator John H. Brown, 83, died today at his home here after several months illness. Brown also a former Westmoreland county commissioner, is survived by a daughter, Mrs. A. C. Gordon, of Pittsburgh, and a son, Walter, of Jeannette.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Important developments in the proposed railroad mergers were foreshadowed by the spectacular advances in railroad shares in unusually heavy trading today. Meetings of the boards and special committees of Erie and Pere Marquette roads take place today, while resumption of the conferences between the Van Sweringens and the minority stockholders of Chesapeake and Ohio was also on the schedule.

With the opening gong on the stock exchange the excited buying of Wheeling and Lake Erie, Western Maryland, Erie, New Haven, Peoria and Eastern, Rock Island and other of the "merger rails" was promptly resumed. Wheeling and Lake Erie preferred, on which about 70 per cent in unpaid dividends has accumulated, raced up to 78¾ for a new gain of 4 points, while both of the Western Maryland issues gained 2 points.

Erie common and first preferred gained a point and New Haven 1½. Shorts in various railroad stocks were badly punished as the closely held and newly sensational issues forged ahead to unprecedented price levels.

A decline in time money rates to 4¾ per cent is the latest evidence of the easier tone in the money market. Freight car loadings for the week compare favorably with the corresponding week of last year, and manufacturing reports from the motor car companies for January were well up to expectations.

Call money 4 per cent.

Husband Jailed, Two Wives Stage Consolation Act

Wife No. 1 And Wife No. 2 Have Get-Together Meeting; Divorce Planned

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—Edward Ireland, 34, of Chester, is in the county prison here today in default of $2,500 bail while the two women who claim him as their husband console one another in the second wife's apartment here.

Mrs. Willa Abernathy Ireland of Greenville, N. C., wife No. 1 today visited wife No. 2 Mrs. Susan Gay Ireland of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., and her 6 weeks old baby Rose Marie and offered to relinquish her claim to Ireland for the baby's sake.

"For the sake of this baby of yours I am willing to get a divorce so you can have him. I still love him" Mrs. Abernathy Ireland added as she kissed wife No. 2 and Rose Marie goodbye.

Ireland eloped with his first wife from Greenvillt to Bennettsville, S. C., where they were married on June 8, 1925. The second marriage to Susan Gay, Roanoke Rapids took place about four months later in Virginia police said.

Britain Blocks Peace Move, Says Chinese Leader

By H. K. REYNOLDS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Feb. 2.—"A settlement can be reached at once if there is a cessation of the war atmosphere and the war neurosis created by the menacing concentration of British troops at Shanghai," declared Eugene Chen, Chinese Nationalist leader, in a cablegram to the Independent labor party here today.

Chen declared that he had made flat statements to the British representatives that the international settlement in Shanghai will not be occupied by Cantonese troops and that lives and property will be protected.

New Kind Of Steel Tested In Germany

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Tests have just been completed at the bureau of standards, department of commerce, of specimens of a structural steel being introduced in Germany which is arousing considerable interest among German engineers.

The tests disclose a yield point higher than that of ordinary structural steel, somewhat higher than that of high carbon steel and nearly equal to that of the usual structural nickel steel. The ducility and toughness are said to be as good as in nickel steel and markedly better than in high carbon, though not so high as in ordinary structural steel.

The combination of high yield point and ducility is obtained by using a low carbon and high silicon content. The German process is declared not to be new, however, the bureau asserting that silicon steel varying but slightly from the German formula was made up for the United States navy at an American steel works more than 16 years ago.

Seminary Head Resigns Post At Washington

Principal Of Fashionable Washington Female Seminary Resigns

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Pa., Feb. 2.—Miss Mary Debure McCurdy, principal of the fashionable Washington female seminary here, today announced her resignation from the staff of the institution, effective July 1. Her resignation was accepted by the board of trustees.

Miss McCurdy said that she planned a trip to Europe this summer. Further than that, she has made no plans, she said. She has been at the head of the institution, 13 years.

Washington Seminary numbers among its graduates some of the most prominent members of Western Pennsylvania social circles, the institution was founded 91 years ago.

Beta Sigma Society Of Epworth League At Epworth Church

The Epworth League of the Epworth Methodist church has been re-organized recently according to a new system of membership which is a radical departure from the old method.

According to this system, the League is organized into a Greek letter society semi-secret in nature. It is called Beta Sigma, and has three degrees of membership; it has been adopted at five other places in the Erie Conference; and it gives promise of stimulating interest in the young people's work.

Tuesday evening the members of the cabinet of the League were initiated into the mysteries of the second or Beta degree, and are laying plans already for the initiation of all other members eligible for this degree. The third degree will be given in the near future.

Alas! Disarmament conferences can limit everything except suspicion.

Isn't it rather undignified to confess being afraid of what Russia may do in Central America?

Richards Puts In Three Bills

New Castle Assemblyman Introduces First Bills In Legislature

CIVIL SERVICE FOR SANITARY POLICE

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 2.—Among the grist of bills presented to the House of Representatives on Monday night, were three by Bart Richards of the first district of Lawrence County, his "maiden" bills so to speak as they are the first pieces of legislation he has presented since taking office.

Exempt Small Inheritance Tax

The first bill was presented in the fulfillment of a pre-election promise, a bill designed to grant an exemption of $10,000.00 in estates in the payment of direct inheritance tax. The reason back of the bill is that at the present time, a hardship is often worked upon the families of working men when an estate is settled. Under the present law, two per cent tax must be paid on all estates settled. This means that if a widow is left an estate of small value, say $5000.00 or more or less, she must pay the state 2 per cent, and in all too many cases must mortgage the home left her to pay the state the tax due.

Just what action will be had upon the bill is problematical. There are a number of tax bills in the hopper this session, some of them with provisions similar to that presented by Richards. The chances are that one of them will be reported out of the committee and sent to the floor of the House for action.

Civil Service Provision

The second bill was for the placing of sanitary policemen and inspectors in third class cities under the Civil Service provisions. At the present time such employes hold their jobs by virtue of political influence, and in some cities, such jobs are made political footballs. The bill has been successfully opposed in previous sessions, for it means the removal of the jobs from the spoils system.

The third bill is an enabling act, validating incorporation articles where the applicant had not made proper registry. Many such bills are in, this one being to rectify a slight error in the incorporation articles of an Ukrainian church in New Castle.

Among the bills which have been presented by various members is one which means much to New Castle and to every other city in the state. This is House Bill 29, introduced by Representative Jones and calls for the repeal of the present law allowing school boards to assess a special tax of up to $5.00, and providing that such tax be raised by an occupational tax.

Actually it means that the property holder will suffer in that if it were passed, the per capita tax of $133,345.00 collected in New Castle would have to be made up in occupational tax. Figured on last year's tax millage this would amount to only $83,120.00, and the balance would have to be raised by an increase in the millage, catching the property owners and allowing non-property owners to escape.

The bill seemed innocuous enough in the Committee of Counties and Townships where it was sent, although it was bitterly opposed by Representative Milton A. Bickett, a member of that committee. It was reported out favorably and immediately antagonists of the bill began campaigning against it. Members of the committee who had voted for it changed their minds after having its provisions explained to them and when the bill comes up for passage it will have a tough time.

In the meantime, the campaign against it will go on.

To Buy Snowplow For Mount Carmel

(International News Service)

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., Feb. 2.—The icy and slippery conditions of streets in this city during the present winter has moved the business men to action and have launched a compaign whereby a tractor-snow plow will be purchased through the borough council.

Committees have been formed to convass the business men in an effort to raise $4,000, the amount required to secure the snowplow which would be used to keep the city streets free from snow and ice.

The city councilmen have expressed themselves strongly in favor of the plan.

In the jury room: "Now, gentlemen, which set of liars shall we agree to believe?"

An Every-day Story

—The Broad Street Studio

Bethlehem, Pa.—"After an attack of typhoid fever I was in a weak, nervous condition. I was reduced in flesh to 120 pounds, had no appetite nor could I retain the food I did eat. My rest at night was broken by nervous dreams and in the morning I felt too weary to do anything. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which had the reputation of cleansing the blood and driving impurities from the body. I found all this to be true in my case for I soon began to mend. I gained in flesh, lost all the tired feeling I had and could enjoy a good night's rest. I am glad to recommend the 'Discovery' as a fine tonic."—Mrs. John T. Price, 545 Spring St. Dealer's, fluid or tablets.

New Clue In Death Mystery

(International News Service)

CAPE MAY, N. J., Feb. 2.—A new clue was uncovered today which investigators believe may lead to a solution of the mysterious death of Miss Mary F. Clark, wealthy Pittsburgh spinster, whose frozen body was found on the beach here on January 15.

Wardell Higbee, county detective, who has been working quietly on the case ever since a coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by strangulation, announced today that he had learned Miss Clark had arranged to meet a certain man here. The man, whose name is withheld, is being sought in several cities and his home is being watched.

Higbee predicted that the suspect would be arrested soon and subjected to a rigid questioning. The coroner's jury decided that the wealthy woman was killed by being held face downward in the sand of the beach.

Hard Coal Market Rather Hard Hit

Reaction To Last Yeaf's Strike Is Seen In Present Conditions

(International News Service)

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 2.—More than 500 cars of coal a day are loaded by collieries on the Hazleton and Mahanoy division of the Lehigh Valley Railroad and then stand there awaiting orders from dealers.

In this manner anthracite operators of Pennsylvania summed up the situation with which they are confronted in mid-winter. They are unable to explain it, with much satisfaction. The fact that oil and soft coal made big inroads into the hard coal markets last year during the anthracite strike, is given as a partial explanation. Absence of long spells of zero weather this year is given as another reason.

With companies cutting work-day weeks to four and five days in mid-winter leads to fear that mines will be idle much next summer.

Women's Oldest

hygienic problem now solved a new and different way—true protection. Dispose of it as easily as tissue

By ELLEN J. BUCKLAND
Registered Nurse

THE old-time "sanitary pad" is fast becoming a rarity. Millions are discarding it as a needless hazard.

"KOTEX," a new and remarkable way, is now used by 8 in 10 better class women.

✓Discards as easily as tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

It's five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads!

You dine, dance, motor for hours in sheerest frocks without a second's doubt or fear.

It deodorizes, too. And thus stops all danger of offending.

You ask for it at any drug or department store, without hesitancy, simply by saying "KOTEX."

Do as millions are doing. End old, insecure ways. Enjoy life every day. Be sure you get the genuine. Only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

Your Income Tax

Income Tax in a Nutshell:

WHO? Single persons who had net income of $1,500 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more, and married couples who had net income of $3,500 or more or gross income of $5,000 or more must file returns.

WHEN? The filing period ends March 15, 1927.

WHERE? Collector of internal revenue for the district in which the person lives or has his principal place of business.

HOW? Instructions on Forms 1040A and 1040; also the law and regulations.

WHAT? One and one half per cent normal tax on the first $4,000 in excess of the personal exemptions and credits. Three per cent normal tax on the next $4,000. Five per cent normal tax on the balance of net income. Surtax on net income in excess of $10,000.

No. 15.

Salaries paid employees constitutes one of the largest items of business expenses. To be allowed such claims must conform closely to the words of the revenue act of 1926, which provides for the deduction of "a reasonable allowance for personal services actually rendered." The test of deductibility is whether the amounts paid are reasonable and whether they are, in fact, purely for personal services.. Money paid an officer of a corporation for which no services inadequate to the compensation rendered, is not deductible as "salary." Reasonable compensation is held to be an amount that ordinarily is paid by like enterprises in like circumstances for like services.

For example, an officer of a corporation received in 1926 compensation in excess of the amount ordinarily paid for services such as he rendered, and which bear a relationship to the amount of his stock holdings. The excess would not be treated as salary but as a distribution of profits upon stock, and the amount of such excess would not be considered a deductible item.

Bonuses to employees may be deducted by employers when such payments are made in good faith as additional compensation for services actually rendered, provided that, when added to the stipulated salaries, the total does not exceed a "reasonable compensation for services rendered." When the amount of a salary of an officer or employee is paid for a limited time to his widow or heirs in recognition of services rendered by the deceased, such payments may be deducted. Salaries paid employees absent in the military, naval, or other service of the Government, but who intend to return, are allowable deductions.

Simple Remedy For Bad Stomach Gives Swift Relief

No Need of Strong Medicines or Diet. Safe and Simple Home Recipe Keeps Stomach in Fine Condition.

If you are a victim of Stomach Troubles—Gas, Sourness, Pain or Bloating—you may have quick and certain relief by following this simple advice.

Don't take strong medicines, artificial digestants or pull down your system with starvation diets. For within reason most folks may eat what they like—if they will keep their stomach free from souring acids that hinder or paralyze the work of digestion.

And the best and easiest way to do this is to follow every meal with three or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia—a pleasant, harmless, inexpensive, and handy tablet form of Magnesia that promptly neutralizes acidity and keeps your stomach sweet and clean.

A week's trial of Bisurated Magnesia tablets, which any good druggist can supply at trifling cost, should quickly convince you that 90 per cent of ordinary stomach distress is absolutely unnecessary. Be sure to get Bisurated Magnesia Tablets!

Rev. M. J. Scripture Gives Concluding Message Of Revival

Annual Missionary Convention Will Open This Evening In Hoover Heights Tabernacle

Special revival services being held in the Hoover Heights Tabernacle of the Christian and Missionary Alliance on Morris street have merged into the annual missionary convention. The first of the party will be present tonight when Rev. Cadmen will give a stereopticon lecture on China.

Last evening Mrs. Mary Bogle sang "I'll Follow Thee". Mr. Scripture spoke on "Naaman the Leper".

Reviewing the great achievements of Naaman, the speaker pointed out the sad fact of his being a leper. Mr. Scripture then compared leprosy to sin. Naaman found deliverance from that dreadful disease when he went to the man of God and obeyed his instructions. It seemed foolish and absurd, but it worked. So it is with the sinner. It seems absurd that one can have their sins cleansed by simply believing in Christ and fully trusting him, but we note that it works, even today. Just as Naaman had flesh like new, even as a babe, so the sinner who is saved has a new heart, new desires; yea, he is a new creature in Christ.

Autos Stolen For Joy Rides

GROVE CITY, Pa., Feb. 2.—An epidemic of automobile stealing has broken out in Grove City, according to Chief of Police Charles Ray. A number of cars of local residents have been reported missing within the last week. All the vehicles reported stolen have been recovered parked along an unfrequented stretch of road. According to Chief Ray it seems that some couples with a taste for joy riding and without the means have been appropriating the cars.
